

Strasbourg, 2 May 2010

CDL-JU(2010)025syn.
Engl. only

EUROPEAN COMMISSION FOR DEMOCRACY THROUGH LAW
(VENICE COMMISSION)

in co-operation with
THE CONSTITUTIONAL COURT OF PERU

INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR ON “CONSTITUTIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS JUSTICE”

Lima, Peru, 19-21 April 2010

SYNOPSIS

The Venice Commission co-organised with the Constitutional Court of Peru an international seminar on Constitutional and International Human Rights Justice in Lima, Peru, in April 2010.

Members of the Constitutional Court of Peru, as well as judges from the Supreme Courts and equivalent bodies from Croatia, Mexico, Uruguay, Brazil, Colombia, Croatia and experts from different countries gathered together to discuss different topics, such as the impact of Human Rights treaties such as the European Convention on Human Rights the impact of the Convention on the member States and the implementation techniques and the role of constitutional courts in determining the status of International standards in national legal orders.