- b) voter's full name and the year of birth;
- c) voter's domicile/residence;
- d) state identification number (IDNP);
- e) series and number of voter's identification document.

(3) For communes the voters' lists are developed based on villages and, if applicable, based on streets, while for cities and municipalities the lists are developed on the basis of streets and apartment blocks. The distribution of voters shall be performed based on the information provided by the relevant local public authorities.

(4) The voters' lists which contain military personnel in military units, as well as their families, and other voters having domiciles on the territory of military units, are developed on the basis of data provided by the Commanders of the respective military units. The military personnel with their domicile outside of the military units, including their families, are included in the voters' lists according to their domicile.

(5) For the polling stations created in health resorts, rest-homes, and in hospital facilities and other in-patient medical facilities, the voters' lists are developed on the basis of voters' declaration regarding his/her place of stay or based on data provided by the management of the aforementioned institutions.

(6) For the polling stations created outside the Republic of Moldova, the voters' lists are developed based on data collected by the heads of diplomatic missions and of consular offices established in the respective countries. At the beginning of the electoral period, the diplomatic missions and consular offices shall make public and update the voters' lists held. At least 25 days prior to the date of elections, the voters' lists update shall be ceased. The updated lists shall be sent to the Central Electoral Commission without delay.

(7) If a voter has changed his/her domicile or residence during the period after the voters' lists were developed and before the date of elections, the electoral bureau of the polling station from the previous domicile, upon the request of the voter and on the basis of the identity document accepted for voting, shall issue the voter a certificate confirming the right to vote. The voter who received such a certificate confirms its receipt by affixing his/her signature in the voters' list in the row with his/her name under the heading "Notes". The mentioned heading shall state the date of certificate issuance, its number, and the name of the electoral bureau member who issued it.

(8) Persons holding the right to vote who have changed their place of stay after the last elections are entitled to declare their new place of stay to the local public administration authority no later than 30 days before the next elections. Such persons shall be included in the voters' lists of the polling station corresponding to the place of stay. The appropriate local public authorities shall convey the respective information to the Central Electoral Commission without delay.

(9) The Central Electoral Commission shall convey voters' lists to local public authorities/diplomatic missions or consular offices no later than 22 days before the Election Day, in triplicate, containing a stamp and other authenticity signs affixed on each page. Two copies of the lists shall be sent immediately to the Precinct Electoral Bureau, and one copy is kept at the Mayoralty/diplomatic mission or consular office.

(10) Voters may require the Central Electoral Commission or the Bureau to operate amendments in the voters' lists no later than one day prior to the day of election. The bureau shall communicate the requested amendments to the Central Electoral Commission without delay, having attached the supporting documents, i.e. voter's application, statement and a copy of identity documents.

Article 45. Verification of Voters' Lists

(1) Voters' lists shall be made available within the polling stations premises, as well as on the Central Electoral Commission website no later than 20 days prior to elections day, having indicated the first and last name and date of birth of every voter. A copy of the list shall be kept at the Mayoralty. No later than 20 days before the elections the voters shall be notified via all available communication means (Media, phone, poster, Internet) about the location of the polling station where they can vote.

(2) Citizens and representatives of electoral competitors shall have the possibility to get acquainted with the voters' lists and to verify their accuracy. They shall have the right to submit complaints if their names have been omitted or deleted from the list, as well as if errors have been committed in their personal data or in the data of other voters, no later than on the day preceding the Election Day. The complaints shall be considered by the relevant electoral bodies within 24 hours, and their decisions may be appealed by interested parties in Courts according to the established procedure if their request to amend the list or include their name in the list was rejected.

(3) The Central Electoral Commission shall develop and pass the procedures for preparing, verifying and updating the voters' lists, clearly governing the issues on: transmitting the voters' lists to electoral bureaus; including/excluding voters by the Precinct Electoral Bureau members; subsequent presentation of final voters' lists and other appropriate aspects.

Chapter 6

Chapter 8 BALLOT PAPERS

Article 53. Ballot Papers Design

(1) The Central Electoral Commission shall approve the template and text of ballot papers for parliamentary elections, presidential elections as well as for the organization of the republican referendum, by issuing a decision to this end. In local elections, the Central Electoral Commission shall approve the template of ballot papers, while the respective District Electoral Council shall approve the ballot paper text, having issued a decision in this regard.

(2) The ballot paper shall be divided into quadrilaterals equal to the number of electoral competitors. The size of the quadrilateral must be large enough to include the full name of the candidate, the name of the party, other socio-political organisation, electoral bloc that nominated the list of candidates or the candidate, and, upon request, the candidate electoral symbol or sign. No identical electoral symbols or signs shall be allowed.

(3) Candidates are listed on a ballot paper in the order determined by the results of the lot daily drawn by the appropriate election body.

(4) The electoral sign or symbol of the electoral competitor that nominated the list of candidates or the respective candidate, or, optionally, the independent candidate electoral symbol shall be printed on the left side of each quadrilateral. The candidates' electoral signs and symbols shall be submitted to the competent election body together with other documents for registration of electoral competitors.

(5) A 15mm-diameter circle shall be printed on the right side of every quadrilateral at an equal distance from the top and bottom margins, in which the voter shall affix the stamp with the inscription "Voted" next to a selected candidate.

(6) Ballot papers shall be prepared in accordance with the Law on the use of languages spoken in the Republic of Moldova.

(7) When several types of elections are being held at the same time, the ballot papers shall differ by colour.

Article 54. Preparing the Ballot Papers

(1) The ballot papers shall be printed according to the instructions of the respective electoral bodies. Members of the Central Electoral Commission shall observe, while representatives of electoral competitors may observe the process of developing the ballot paper matrix, printing the ballot papers and destroying the matrix afterwards.

(2) Ballot papers shall be printed on opaque (matt) paper no later than 3 days prior to elections in a quantity corresponding to the number of voters. Each ballot shall bear both the series and number of respective constituency and polling station. The printed ballot papers shall be folded to conceal the ballots' side where the voter can affix the stamp "Voted".

(3) The printed ballot papers shall be stored by the responsible District Electoral Council and delivered to Precinct Electoral Bureaus on the eve of elections, being accompanied by a delivery certificate. The Central Electoral Commission shall send the ballot papers to the electoral bureaus of the polling stations set up abroad at least 3 days before the Election Day. The ballot papers are distributed based on the number of voters estimated according to the information submitted by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and European Integration and as per the data collected by the Central Electoral Commission. No more than 5000 ballot papers shall be issued for each polling station.

(4) The premises where the ballot papers are stored shall be guarded by the police. Only the chairperson of the respective District Electoral Council or Precinct Electoral Bureau, accompanied by at least two other members of the council or bureau, shall have access to ballot papers.

(5) Representatives of electoral competitors and voters shall have the right to get acquainted with the ballot paper design at the respective Precinct Electoral Bureau.

(6) The Central Electoral Commission shall deliver the ballot papers for parliamentary and presidential elections to District Electoral Councils no later than 2 days before the Election Day.

Chapter 9

VOTING

Article 55. Time and Place of Voting

On Election Day people may vote between 7:00 and 21:00. The Precinct Electoral Bureau shall make public the time and place of voting no later than 10 days before the Election Day.

Article 56. Voting Conditions

(1) The polling station may not be closed and the voting process may not be suspended during the time allotted for voting, except for the cases of mass disorders, natural disasters, or other unforeseen circumstances which endanger the voters or make the voting impossible. In such cases, the chairperson of the Precinct Electoral Bureau may suspend voting for no more than 2 hours to bring the polling station to its proper condition or move it to another place, having notified the voters thereof.

(2) In local elections, when after 2 hours it is impossible to resume the voting that has been suspended due to the reasons mentioned under paragraph (1), the voting is considered suspended for a two-week period at most. The Central Electoral Commission, within 3 days, shall adopt a decision on the day of resuming the suspended voting. The voting shall be resumed under similar legal conditions.

(3) Individuals entitled to observe the voting may not be obliged to leave the polling station during the time when voting was suspended.

Article 57. Organisation of Voting

(1) Voting shall be carried out in specially equipped places with desks for ballot paper issuance and voting booths or rooms for secret voting and ballot boxes. The latter must be placed in such a way as when approaching them the voters shall enter first the voting booths/rooms for secret voting. The premises shall have a sufficient number of voting booths/rooms so as to avoid the crowd.

(2) In order to maintain the order inside the polling station and avoid crowding, the Precinct Electoral Bureau shall establish a voter path, beginning with the entry to the tables where the ballot papers are handed out, then to the secret voting booths, and on to the ballot boxes.

(3) The polling station shall be furnished to allow the Precinct Electoral Bureau members and other persons authorised to observe the election procedures to continuously monitor all voting aspects, including voter identification, issuance of ballot papers and voters' casting ballot papers into ballot boxes, ballot paper counting and preparation of protocols.

(4) The local public authority shall be responsible for providing the polling station with voting booths, ballot boxes, and with other necessary materials.

(5) The Precinct Electoral Bureau shall be responsible for the organisation of voting process, ensuring a secret suffrage, for premises equipment, and for the maintenance of due order within the polling stations.

Article 58. Voting

(1) Every voter must vote in person. Voting for other individuals is not allowed. The Precinct Electoral Bureau shall hand out ballot papers to voters as per the voters' list only upon the presentation of an identification document. Voters shall confirm the receipt of the ballot paper by signing in the voters' list next to their name. A stamp is affixed on their ID slip or on the document based on which they vote, confirming that they voted on Election Day.

(2) Citizens residing within the territory of the polling station not included in the voters' lists shall be entered on an additional list upon presentation of an identification document confirming their domicile within the polling station perimeter. In the same additional voters' list, which contains the voter's full name, date and place of birth, the last domicile in the Republic of Moldova, state identification number (IDPN), are also included:

- a) voters who come to the polling station with the voting certificate. The voting certificate shall be retained by the polling station bureau and attached to the additional list;
- b) the persons detained on the basis of an arrest order until a Court sentence is pronounced, persons sentenced to prison (deprivation of liberty) whose sentence is not final; persons under arrest for committing an offence, persons sentenced to prison (deprivation of liberty) by a final Court decision, located in penitentiaries;
- c) the voters who do not have a registration at domicile or residence.

(3) The voting is done upon presenting one of the following identification documents:

- a) identity card of a Moldovan citizen accompanied by a slip which confirms the domicile or residence on the territory of the polling station;
- b) temporary identity card with confirmation of Moldovan citizenship and domicile of the holder;
- c) passport of a Moldovan citizen for entry and exit the country, identity card of a Moldovan citizen, sailor's card – in parliamentary elections, presidential elections or republican referenda, for polling stations opened outside the Republic of Moldova;

Attention!

Law no. 273/1994 on identity documents from the national passport system was supplemented with a new align. (13): «(13) Passport of the citizen of the Republic of Moldova whose validity period has expired can be used to exercise the right to vote.»

Art. VI. of Law 113/2019 – If the mandate of a MP elected in a single member constituency is declared vacant with at least 180 days until the expiry of the mandate of the Parliament of the X legislature, partial parliamentary elections shall be organized, which will be held in accordance with the legislation in force until the date of adoption of this law, except for the legal provisions on the obligation to present certificates of integrity, regarding the electoral campaign and the voter identification documents, which will be regulated by the law in force, applied accordingly.

- d) service ID for serving military personnel, civil service card issued by Civil Service Centre for persons performing civil service as an alternative to military service.

(4) In the polling stations located outside the Republic of Moldova the voters shall fill in a personal responsibility statement certifying that they would refrain from multiple voting, being informed about criminal liability if this obligation is infringed.

(5) The chairperson and precinct electoral bureau members shall vote at the polling station where they conduct their activity and, if necessary, shall be included in additional lists based on vote certificates.

(6) The chairperson of the precinct electoral bureau shall keep records of important events during voting and vote counting. Upon the request of bureau members or of persons authorized to observe the election procedures, or of any voter, the chairperson shall note their comments and complaints regarding the election procedures on a separate sheet, which shall be attached to the Protocols of the Precinct Electoral Bureau. The information on voting on the main and additional lists is sent every 3 hours, in electronic form and/or via phone, to the Central Electoral Commission.

(7) The electoral bureau shall decide to prolong with no more than two hours the period of voting, in order to allow the voters, who queue up in the respective polling station, to exercise their rights, notifying the district electoral bureau and the Central Electoral Commission about such an extension.

Article 59. Ballot Paper Filling in Procedure

(1) The ballot paper shall be filled in by the voter in a secret voting booth/room only. A voter who is unable to fill in the ballot paper by him/herself is entitled to invite another person into the voting booth, except for the members of the electoral bureau, representatives of candidates, and persons authorized to observe the election procedures. Such cases of assistance to unable person shall be recorded in the Precinct Electoral Bureau report.

(2) The voter shall affix the stamp with the inscription "Voted" in the circle of only one of the quadrilaterals on the ballot paper, which shall mean that he/she has voted for the respective candidate. The circles in the rest of the quadrilaterals shall remain blank.

(3) Nobody shall be allowed to take an official ballot paper out of the polling station.

(4) Each voter may vote for one electoral competitor only.

(5) If a voter has spoiled a ballot paper by mistake, at his/her request the Precinct Electoral Bureau shall cancel it and issue a new ballot paper. This is allowed to be done just once. A note shall be made on such case in the Protocol prepared on voting results and in the voters' list.

(6) The voter shall insert the ballot paper stamped "Voted" into the ballot box.

Article 60. Ensuring the security of the voting process

(1) On Election Day, at 07:00 a.m. the chairperson of the Precinct Electoral Bureau, in the presence of no less than half of the bureau members, shall check the ballot boxes and seal them. The chairperson shall also check the integrity of voters' lists, ballot papers and stamps and file a Protocol in duplicate. The Protocol shall be signed by all present Precinct Electoral Bureau members, and one copy of the Protocol is inserted into the ballot box, and the chairperson declares the voting open.

(2) Ballot papers shall be stored in a secure place within the polling station, arranged in packages of 100, and shall be allotted by the precinct chairperson to bureau members to be issued to voters as necessary.

(3) Members of the Precinct Electoral Bureau as well as representatives of the candidates and persons authorised to observe the election procedures shall be required to wear visible badges. People entering the polling station are prohibited to wear or present badges, pins or other symbols of electoral campaigning.

(4) If, for health or other ground reasons, the voter is unable to come to the polling station, upon the person's written request, the Precinct Electoral Bureau shall designate no less than two bureau members to go to the voter's accommodation place to conduct the voting, bringing with them a mobile ballot box and all the materials necessary for voting. The requests may be submitted in writing within 2 weeks prior to the Election Day and until 18:00 of the day preceding the elections. On the Election Day, the requests may be submitted in writing until 15:00, upon the submission of a medical certificate. These persons shall vote as per the voters' list for voting at the place of stay, compiled by the Precinct Electoral Bureau. The persons who are not included in such voters' list, are not eligible to vote at the place of their accommodation. A note shall be made reading "Voted at the place of accommodation" in the voters' list next to the name of such persons. The provisions of this paragraph do not apply to the voting abroad.

(5) Persons detained as per an arrest warrant until a Court sentence is pronounced, persons sentenced to prison (deprivation of liberty) whose sentence is not final; persons under arrest for committing an offence, person sentenced to prison (deprivation of liberty) by a final Court decision, located in penitentiaries shall vote in compliance with paragraph (4), using a mobile ballot box.

(6) If the chairperson of the precinct bureau authorizes a mobile ballot box to be taken out of the polling station, he/she shall notify such fact, as well as the list of voters who requested to vote at place of accommodation to representatives of candidates and persons authorised to observe the election procedures. The latter shall be offered the possibility to accompany the mobile box using own transportation means if necessary.

(7) The chairperson of the Precinct Electoral Bureau shall be responsible for maintaining order on Election Day within the polling station and territory adjacent to it within a radius of 100 meters. The decisions he/she takes to this end are binding for all.

(8) The following persons shall be entitled to attend the election body meetings, be present at votes counting and tabulation, during the activities related to voters' lists, ballot papers, vote certificates, and to filing the Protocols of elections and referendum results:

- a) members and representatives of the superior electoral bodies;
- b) representatives of candidates to electoral bodies;
- c) national and international observers accredited by the respective bodies, as well as their interpreters, as appropriate;
- d) Media representatives.

No other person may remain within the polling section longer than it takes one to vote.

(9) It shall be strictly forbidden to enter a polling station carrying firearms or bladed weapon. Upon the request of the chairperson of the Precinct Electoral Bureau, a security officer may enter the polling station premises only to assist in re-establishing legal order.

Chapter 10
COUNTING THE VOTES AND TABULATING THE ELECTION RESULTS

Article 61. Votes Counting and Tabulation by Precinct Electoral Bureau

(1) After the time reserved for voting has expired, the chairperson of the Precinct Electoral Bureau shall announce the end of voting and order the closure of polling station premises. The precinct electoral bureau shall start counting the votes.

(2) Before opening the ballot boxes, all unused ballot papers shall be counted and cancelled by the Precinct Electoral Bureau by affixing the stamp "Cancelled", being subsequently bundled and sealed.

(3) Before counting the votes cast for candidates, the Precinct Electoral Bureau shall determine the number of voters who were issued ballot papers by counting the number of signatures affixed by the voters in the main voters' lists and in the additional lists.

(4) Following the verification the seals on the ballot boxes, the chairperson of the Precinct Electoral Bureau, in the presence of bureau members and of persons authorised to observe the election procedures, shall open the ballot boxes. Mobile ballot boxes shall be opened first, the ballot papers from mobile ballot box are counted, and, subsequently, the other ballot boxes shall be opened.

(5) The polling station must be provided with sufficient tables so that all ballots taken out of ballot boxes may be counted in one place visible to all bureau members and to other people in attendance. Candidates' name tags shall be placed on the tables where votes are counted.

(6) The number of ballot papers taken out of mobile ballot boxes shall be counted first separately, then reconciled with the number of ballots issued for mobile voting, and only after that the obtained number shall be added to other ballot papers in order to count the votes cast for candidates.

(7) According to a procedure determined by the Precinct Electoral Bureau, or upon instructions provided by the Central Electoral Commission or competent District Electoral Council, the Precinct Electoral Bureau members shall unfold the ballots and determine for which candidate the ballot was cast. The ballots for each candidate shall be counted and bundled separately, and the results of the counting, once determined, shall be entered on a special counting sheet and communicated to the superior election body.

(8) Before the number of votes obtained by each candidate is entered on the results Protocol, representatives of candidates and other persons authorised to observe the election procedures shall be allowed to double check the data entered on the special counting sheet.

(9) The Precinct Electoral Bureau shall not include invalid ballots in the total number of counted valid votes.

(10) After the polling station closure, the Precinct Electoral Bureau is considered to be in a meeting to count the votes and complete the bureau Protocols and report. All Precinct Electoral Bureau members shall remain at the polling station and be engaged in the bureau operations throughout this period, unless prevented from doing so by a physical incapacity or other exceptional circumstances.

Article 62. Invalid Ballot Papers

(1) The following types of ballot papers shall be declared as invalid:

- a) ballot papers with the constituency and polling station identity numbers that do not match the number of constituency and polling station where the ballot was cast;
- b) ballot papers having design than the one legally approved;
- c) ballot papers on which the stamp "Voted" has been affixed in more than one quadrilaterals;
- d) ballot papers on which the stamp "Voted" has not been affixed in any quadrilateral;
- e) ballot papers in which the voters added additional names of candidates or other names;
- f) which have been deformed or smeared, making the voter's option unclear.

(2) As long as the intention of the voter is clear, the ballot may not be declared as invalid simply because the voter affixed the "Voted" stamp several times in a single quadrilateral, or affixed it outside the quadrilateral circle or on the candidate's symbol or sign.

(3) Prior to declaring a ballot paper as invalid, the chairperson of the Precinct Electoral Bureau shall provide all members of the bureau and persons authorised to observe the election procedures with the possibility to examine it.

(4) If the Precinct Electoral Bureau members have doubts about the validity of a ballot paper, the issue shall be addressed by vote, and the voting results shall be entered in the Protocol of the bureau meeting.

Article 63. Precinct Electoral Bureau Protocol and Report

(1) The Precinct Electoral Bureau shall draw up a Protocol, in duplicate, that contains:

- a) the number of voters included in the voters' list;
- b) the number of voters included in additional lists;
- c) the number of ballot papers issued to voters;
- d) the number of voters who voted;
- e) the number that shows the difference between the number of ballot papers issued and the number of people who voted;
- f) the number of invalid ballot papers;
- g) the number of valid votes cast for each candidate (or for each issue put up for referendum);
- h) the total number of valid votes cast;
- i) the number of ballot papers received by the polling station bureau;
- j) the number of unused and cancelled ballot papers.

(2) For any types of elections the Central Electoral Commission shall design the sample of the Protocol on vote counting results to be prepared by the Precinct Electoral Bureau. Prior to Election Day, the respective electoral council shall provide all Precinct Electoral Bureaus with the necessary amount of Protocol.

(3) The vote counting results shall be reviewed at the Precinct Electoral Bureau meeting and entered into the Protocol to be signed by the chairperson, deputy chairperson, secretary, as well as by bureau members. The absence of signatures of certain Precinct Electoral Bureau members shall not invalidate the Protocol; however, the reasons for their absence shall be stated in the Precinct Electoral Bureau report.

(4) The Protocol on voting results shall be prepared in several copies in the presence of Precinct

Electoral Bureau members, representatives of candidates and other authorised persons. A copy of the Protocol shall be kept at the polling station. Another copy shall be submitted to the District Electoral Council, and a copy shall be immediately posted at the entrance into the polling station, whereas the remaining copies must be disseminated amongst representatives of candidates and observers.

(5) The chairperson of the Precinct Electoral Bureau shall also prepare the bureau report based on the written records regarding the activities carried out during the electoral period. The report shall include a summary of requests and complaints regarding the Precinct Electoral Bureaus activity as well as the decisions taken by the bureau with respect to those complaints. The chairperson shall sign the report and give other members the possibility to provide written comments and additions to it and sign it. Complaints and requests shall be attached to the report.

(6) The Chairperson of the Precinct Electoral Bureau shall hand over to the District Electoral Council, as soon as possible, but no later than 18 hours after the announcement of Polling Station closure, the valid ballot papers separately for each electoral competitor, Protocol, report, invalid, unused or contested ballot papers, as well as requests and complaints in a sealed box (package). The box (package) shall be transported by the chairperson and at least 2 members of the precinct bureau, under police guard. The Precinct Electoral Bureaus established outside the Republic of Moldova shall submit, along with the documents listed above, the additional lists.

(7) Precinct electoral bureau stamps shall be kept in a sealed box (package) at the polling station. After closing the elections, stamps shall be handed over to District Electoral Councils.

Article 64. Tabulating the Voting Results by the District Electoral Council

(1) Following the receipt of Protocols and reports presenting the voting results in the polling stations from the Precinct Electoral Bureaus, the District Electoral Council shall first establish voters' turnout. The District Electoral Council shall promptly report this figure to the Central Electoral Commission. If the voters' turnout throughout the constituency is less than required to declare the elections valid in that constituency, the District Electoral Council shall notify the Central Electoral Commission about such fact. Either the Central Electoral Commission or the District Electoral Council shall make a public announcement by which it declares the elections invalid for the entire country or for that particular constituency.

(2) Based on Precinct Electoral Bureau Protocols, the District Electoral Council shall establish, with respect to the entire constituency:

- a) the number of voters included in voters' lists;
- b) the number of voters included in additional lists;
- c) the number of ballot papers issued to voters;
- d) the number of voters who voted;
- e) the number that reflects the difference between the number of ballot papers issued and the number of people who voted;
- f) the number of invalid ballot papers;
- g) the number of valid votes cast for each electoral competitor (for each question put up for referendum);

h) the total number of valid votes cast;

i) the number of ballot papers received by the District Electoral Council;

j) the number of unused and cancelled ballot papers.

(3) The District Electoral Council shall record the results of vote tabulation for the entire constituency in a Protocol, which is signed by all District Electoral Council members. The latter shall also have the possibility to provide written comments to be attached to the Protocol. Copies of the Protocol on elections results tabulation shall be handed to the representatives of candidates and to observers upon their request.

(4) The District Electoral Council shall submit the Protocol containing elections results tabulation in the constituency to the Central Electoral Commission within 48 hours after the Polling Station closure. When submitting the Protocol to the Central Electoral Commission, the District Electoral Council shall display a detailed information at the entrance of its office containing elections results within the constituency.

Article 65. Tabulating the Election Results by the Central Electoral Commission

(1) In parliamentary, presidential, general local elections and republican referenda, based on the documents submitted by District Electoral Councils, the Central Electoral Commission shall prepare within 5 days a Protocol containing:

a) the number of voters included in the voters' lists;

b) the number of voters included in additional lists;

c) the number of voters who were issued ballot papers;

d) the number of voters who voted;

e) the number that shows the difference between the number of ballot papers issued and the number of voters who voted;

f) the number of invalid ballot papers;

g) the number of valid votes cast for each candidate (for each question put up for republican referendum);

h) the total number of valid votes cast;

i) the total number of printed ballot papers.

(2) In parliamentary elections, in presidential elections and republican referenda, the Central Electoral Commission shall record the final voting results for the entire country in the Protocol to be signed by all Commission members, and prepare a report on the election results. Copies of Protocols containing the tabulation of election results shall be given to representatives of electoral competitors and observers, upon their request.

(3) In case of disagreement with the preliminary voting results, prior to the validation of results by the competent bodies, candidates may submit a request to these bodies to recount the votes. A recounting may be ordered by the body entitled to validate the election results based on grounds which could have affected the results of voting and the assignment of mandates, and shall last 7 calendar days at most following the adoption of the decision on recounting. The recounting is carried out by the same electoral bodies; the electoral bodies guilty of fraud shall be replaced. The Central Electoral Commission shall approve the general procedure of recounting, having issued a decision to this end.

(4) In parliamentary and presidential elections the documents referred to in paragraph (2) shall be submitted to the Constitutional Court to confirm the elections results and validate the mandates of members of Parliament and the mandate of the President of the Republic of Moldova.

Article 66. Announcement of Preliminary Results

(1) Prior to receiving the voting results from all subordinate electoral councils and bureaus, the election body responsible for tabulation shall periodically announce the preliminary results as soon as possible after their receipt. In parliamentary, presidential and general local elections, the preliminary results, detailed per polling stations, shall be posted on the official website of the Central Electoral Commission as soon as they are processed.

(2) The election body responsible for tabulation shall make public the overall election results as soon as possible once all the voting results have been received from the subordinate electoral councils and bureaus, only if the complaints submitted to it or to Courts do not affect the election results.

(3) Responsible for tabulating the final results of elections shall be:

- a) the Central Electoral Commission – for parliamentary elections, presidential elections, general local elections and republican referenda; or
- b) the appropriate District Electoral Council – for local elections and local referenda.

Article 67. Storage of Electoral Documents

(1) The Central Electoral Commission shall keep the electoral documentation in compliance with the provisions of the Law on State Archive Fund of the Republic of Moldova and consistent with the Regulation on organising and operating the Central Electoral Commission Archive, as approved by the decision of the Central Electoral Commission.

(2) After the end of the electoral period, District Electoral Councils shall handle the election documents and materials as follows:

- a) submit to the Central Electoral Commission - lists of candidates, a copy of all Protocols and reports prepared by District Electoral Councils and by Precinct Electoral Bureaus, copy of special counting sheet, stamps of district electoral councils and of precinct electoral bureaus, other electoral materials, financial report and delivery act of financial documentation to district (municipality) council (second-level local public authority). In local elections, the Central Electoral Commission shall be submitted the lists of councillors elected in local councils, lists of alternates and downward ranges for each constituency;
- b) valid, invalid and cancelled ballots, voters' lists and vote certificates, a copy of each Protocol, reports prepared by District Electoral Councils and by Precinct Electoral Bureaus, special counting sheet, all complaints together with decisions adopted on them, and in general local elections – the lists of councillors elected in local councils, lists of alternates and downward ranges for each constituency shall be submitted to the Court under the authority of which the District Electoral Council is located;
- c) one copy of each Protocol and report prepared by District Electoral Councils and by Precinct Electoral Bureaus, ballot boxes and other electoral materials shall be submitted by the District Electoral Council to the Mayorality where it was operated prior to its dissolution.

(3) After the expire of 6 months, the valid ballot papers, invalid and cancelled ballot papers, as well as vote certificates sent back to the Court shall be destroyed, while the voters' lists shall be sent to the Central Electoral Commission within 10 days from the confirmation of elections legality.

(4) The Central Electoral Commission shall provide access to the documents referred to in this Article as per the Law on access to information and in compliance with the legislation on protection of personal data.

Chapter 11

ELECTIONS OBSERVATION AND MEDIA COVERAGE

Article 68. Observers

(1) Upon the request of electoral competitors, the District Electoral Council shall accredit an observer for each polling station to monitor the elections. The candidates' trustworthy persons may also be accredited as observers. If the District Electoral Council rejects an individual proposed for accreditation under this paragraph, it shall notify the electoral competitor that proposed that person about the reasons. The refusal to accredit observers must be justified; it can be challenged in the upstream jurisdiction, and subsequently in Courts.

(2) Upon the request of candidates, the Central Electoral Commission shall accredit an observer to monitor the elections in polling stations established outside the Republic of Moldova. As observers may be accredited both Moldovan citizens living abroad and representatives of international and foreign nongovernmental organisations.

(3) Upon request, the Central Electoral Commission shall accredit as observers representatives of international organisations, of foreign governments and of non-government organisations, having registered their interpreters.

(4) By a decision issued by the Central Electoral Commission or by the District Electoral Councils representatives of qualified public associations of the Republic of Moldova shall be accredited to observe the elections. A "qualified" public association is one which is committed as per its charter to protect human rights and democratic values.

(5) Observers accredited by the Central Electoral Commission shall have the right to monitor election processes throughout the country territory and within all polling stations. Observers accredited by District Electoral Councils shall have that right only on the territory of the respective district. The accredited observers are entitled to monitor the election procedures and to attend all meetings held by electoral bodies, including on Election Day, without interfering with the voting process or in other election procedures, and to report any irregularities observed to the chairperson of the electoral bureau. Observers shall have access to all electoral information, to voters' lists, to the Protocols prepared by the electoral bodies; they may take photos and video by notifying the chairperson of the electoral body, without jeopardising voting secrecy and security, whilst national observers may submit notifications on the revealed irregularities, which are to be considered by the chairperson of the electoral body, by informing the author of the notification on the decision taken. The accredited observers may continue their activity in the second round of elections, as well as during the repeated elections/referendum.

(6) Observers can be accredited before the electoral period starts and can perform their activity on the Election Day and also before, during and after elections. The Central Electoral Commission shall approve the Regulation on accreditation of observers by issuing a decision to this end.

(7) To ensure that international observers work efficiently during the electoral period, the Central Electoral Commission shall create the Protocol Office of Accredited International Observers. The numeric composition and working principles of this Office are defined by a Central Electoral Commission decision.

Article 69. General Principles of Media Coverage of Elections

(1) Broadcasters, within all their programmes, and printed Media founded by public authorities are required to observe the principles of fairness, accountability, balance and impartiality while covering the elections.

(2) Broadcasters and printed Media are required to provide equal, non-discriminatory conditions while granting airtime or advertisement space for electoral advertising.

(3) Public broadcasters shall allocate free airtime to electoral competitors in a fair and non-discriminatory manner, based on objective and transparent principles.

(4) Media service providers shall not adopt privileged treatment towards electoral competitors due to their social status and/or the positions held by their candidates.

(5) During the electoral period, public broadcasters and printed Media shall make clear distinction in their journalistic materials between fulfilling the official duties and the electoral activity carried out by persons who do not fall under Article 13(3).

(6) The aggrieved electoral competitors and/or their candidates shall have the right of reply. The written request on granting the right of reply shall be lodged to the Media service provider within two calendar days after the broadcasting/publication of the information. In case of broadcasters, the refusal to grant the right of reply may be challenged with the Audiovisual Coordinating Council, and in case of printed Media – in Courts. The right of reply shall be granted within 3 calendar days following the submission of the request/appeal, but no later than the day preceding the Election Day, under similar conditions with those when their legitimate rights have been infringed.

(7) Media service providers shall be entitled to cover elections and to inform the public about all electoral issues, free from any interference of public authorities, electoral competitors/candidates or of other entities.

Article 70. Peculiarities of Media Coverage of Elections

(1) During the electoral period, the programmes and printed materials in some way related to electoral competitors and/or candidates shall be broadcasted/published with due regards for the Regulation on Media Coverage of the Electoral campaign, approved by the Central Electoral Commission within the first 7 days of the electoral period. Media representatives shall enjoy the same rights as the national observers.

(2) Within the first 7 days following the approval of the Regulation on Media Coverage of the Electoral Campaign, each broadcaster shall submit to the Audiovisual Coordinating Council a statement on its editorial policy for the electoral campaign, showing the name of the owner/owners of the entity. The statements shall be posted on the website of the Audiovisual Coordinating Council, which shall exercise ex-officio control over compliance with the aforementioned requirement as per the provisions of the Audiovisual Code of the Republic of Moldova.

(3) During the electoral campaign for parliamentary elections, presidential elections and republican referenda, the national broadcasters shall be required, whereas the local/regional ones shall be entitled to organize public debates. During the electoral campaign for general local elections and local referenda, the local/regional broadcasters shall be required, whereas the national ones shall be entitled to organize electoral debates. The broadcasters shall define the format, length and the frequency of electoral debates, being made known to the electoral bodies and to the candidates at least 3 calendar days before each live broadcast. In planning and organizing debates between electoral competitors, media service providers will take into account the obligation that all debates have to be conducted and broadcast under live broadcast, only on prime times - between 19:00 and 10:00 on working days and between 17:00 and 22:00 on rest days.

(4) During the electoral campaign for parliamentary elections, presidential elections and republican referenda, the national broadcasters, which list is made public by the Audiovisual Coordinating Council, within the first 3 days of the electoral period, shall provide, free-of-charge, 5 minutes of TV airtime and 10 minutes of radio airtime to the candidates to present their electoral programmes and to inform the voters. The respective airtime is granted apart from the airspace allotted for electoral advertising and debates.

(5) In parliamentary elections, presidential elections and republican referenda, the public broadcasters shall allot 1 minute per day free airtime to candidates to place their electoral advertising. As for the paid electoral advertising, each electoral competitor shall be granted airtime not exceeding 2 minutes per day during the electoral campaign for each broadcast outlet. The terms for buying airtime and the respective fees are made known 3 calendar days before airing electoral advertising. The cost of the airtime granted to electoral competitors shall not exceed the usual cost for commercial advertising. Airtime for paid electoral advertising is granted to all candidates at similar broadcasting hours.

(6) Each candidate is liable for the content of broadcast or published electoral advertising materials. Each electoral advertising material shall include the name of the candidate, the date of its printing, edition and the name of the Printing House. Paid electoral advertising shall be accompanied by the logo "Elections".

(7) Under the current law, the refusal to broadcast or print electoral advertising, either free-of-charge or against payment, may be challenged in Court.

(8) Electoral advertising via Internet and mobile phone is categorized as electoral advertising in printed Media.

(9) On Election Day, prior to the closure of polling stations, the Media shall not make public the results of voters' surveys on their electoral choices.

(10) During the electoral period, any opinion polls on voters' political preferences shall be conducted only if the Central Electoral Commission was notified about this in advance. The results of such polls shall be made public no later than 5 days before the Election Day. On Election Day, prior to the closure of all polling stations, the Media shall not make public materials, including interviews with voters, the number of votes received by candidates during the day, and their chances of winning, including the results of exit polls.

(11) Upon the request of electoral bodies, Media outlets established by public authorities shall publish and the broadcasters shall air, free-of-charge, motivational, civic and electoral education spots; carry out voters' awareness raising campaigns on voting procedures and other voting features.

(12) Every 2 weeks, the Audiovisual Coordinating Council shall submit monitoring reports to the Central Electoral Commission addressing the electoral campaign coverage by national broadcasters. The monitoring reports shall include information on compliance with the legal requirements of election coverage within all programmes. 2 days prior to elections, the Audiovisual Coordinating Council shall submit a summary report to the Central Electoral Commission.

Chapter 12
JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

Section 1
Complaints concerning the Organisation and Conduct of Elections

Article 71. Complaints

(1) Voters and candidates may challenge the actions/inactions and decisions made by the electoral councils and bureaus, as well as the actions/inactions of candidates. A complaint may be lodged with a Court, following a preliminary appeal submitted to the electoral body hierarchically superior to the one, which decision is subject to challenge, except for the complaints related to the actions/inactions of candidates lodged directly to Court, and the complaints referring to the exercise of the right to vote or to the administration of elections lodged to the electoral bureau on the Election Day.

(2) The complaints referring to the organisation and holding of elections shall be considered by the electoral bodies, having complied with hierarchy issues. The Central Electoral Commission shall approve the detailed procedure for complaint consideration during the electoral period, having issued a decision to this end.

(3) Complaints on the electoral campaign coverage by broadcasters, which are under the jurisdiction of the Republic of Moldova, shall be considered by the Audiovisual Coordinating Council in compliance with the provisions of this Code, of the Audiovisual Code of the Republic of Moldova, and the complaints related to printed Media shall be considered by Courts.

(4) The decisions on complaints taken by the electoral bodies and by the Audiovisual Coordinating Council may be appealed in Court.

(5) The complaint shall contain the description of the alleged infringements, evidence, legal ground, the claimant's requirements, signature and identity data of the person who has submitted it. In case of complaints concerning the decisions issued by the electoral bodies, the burden of proving their legality is retained by the respective bodies.

(6) The complaints with respect to financing of electoral campaigns shall be addressed to the Central Electoral Commission in case of electoral competitors running for parliamentary and presidential elections, or to the District Electoral Councils – in case of independent candidates in local elections. The review of complaints related to financing of electoral campaigns unrolled by political parties shall not be subject to the time-bearing periods referred to in Articles 72-74.

Article 72. Submission of Complaints

(1) Within 3 calendar days following the date of committing the action or adopting the decision, such actions/inactions and decisions issued by electoral bodies may be challenged at their hierarchically superior body, while the actions/inactions of candidates may be challenged directly in Courts. The term for submitting the complaint is calculated starting with the next day of the day when the action/inaction was committed, identified or when the decision was adopted.

(2) In local elections, the District Electoral Councils decisions on the complaints, related to the actions/inactions of candidates shall be appealed in Court under the authority of which the respective electoral council falls.

(3) Complaints against the actions and decisions of the Central Electoral Commission shall be submitted to Chisinau Court of Appeal without complying with the preliminary procedure within 3 calendar days when the action was committed or when the decision was adopted.

(4) A candidate's complaint cannot be submitted by the member of the respective election body; it may be submitted by the representative of the candidate in the respective election body or by a person empowered by the candidate by a proxy-letter.

(5) If complaint consideration is not under the jurisdiction of the respective election body, the complaint and all its enclosures shall be sent to the appropriate authority for consideration without delay within 2 calendar days at most after its receipt.

Article 73. Consideration of Complaints

(1) Complaints against actions and decisions of the Central Electoral Commission filed during the electoral period shall be considered within 5 calendar days of their filing, but no later than the Election Day.

(2) Complaints against actions and decisions of District Electoral Councils and of Precinct Electoral Bureaus shall be considered within 3 calendar days of their submission, but no later than the Election Day. Complaints against actions/inactions of electoral competitors shall be considered within 5 calendar days of their submission, but no later than the Election Day. While considering the complaints and disputes, the electoral bodies/Courts shall give priority to those that refer to the registration of candidates and to the accuracy of compiling the voters' lists.

(3) Complaints against the electoral campaign coverage by the broadcasters under the jurisdiction of the Republic of Moldova shall be considered by the Audiovisual Coordinating Council within 5 calendar days after their submission, but no later than the Election Day.

(4) Complaints filed with the Court on the Election Day shall be considered on the same day, whereas complaints against decisions of election body on results tabulation and mandates assignment shall be considered by Court concurrently with the confirmation of elections legality and the validation of mandates.

(5) The Court work schedule shall be organised in such a way to allow the submission and consideration of complaints without delays.

(6) Electoral candidates may defend their interests in Court in the process of considering complaints regarding the actions/inactions and decisions of electoral bodies and actions/inactions of electoral competitors through their representative designated according to Article 15(1).

(7) Complaints filed in Court shall be considered pursuant to the Code of Civil Procedure and to the Administrative Code.

Article 74. Courts Decisions on Complaints

(1) A Court shall adopt and announce its decision pursuant to the Code of Civil Procedure and to the Administrative Code.

(2) Following the consideration of materials on the confirmation of elections legality and validation of mandates, the Court shall take a decision confirming the legality of elections in the respective constituency, validate the mandates of the elected councillors and mayors, and the list of alternates.

(3) If the Court has confirmed the elections legality, but tabulation errors have been found in Protocols, ex-officio or upon the request of a complainant, it shall cancel the Protocol in full or in part and eliminate the candidate with a smaller number of valid votes, replacing him/her with the candidate with a higher number of valid votes from the downwards range.

(4) The Court shall not validate the results of local elections in a respective constituency if the detected infringements committed during elections or during tabulation of results have affected the elections results.

(5) Court decision shall be final and binding upon its delivery.

(6) Court decision may be appealed within one day after its delivery, and the Court of Appeal decision may be challenged within one day after its delivery.

(7) The first and the second appeal shall be considered within 3 days of submission.

Section 2

Liability for the Violation of Election Legislation

Article 75. Legal Liability

(1) Individuals and legal persons who violate the election legislation provisions, hinder free exercise of citizens' electoral rights, hinder the electoral bodies activity, shall be held liable under the legislation in force.

(2) For the violation of the election legislation, the Central Electoral Commission or the District Electoral Council may apply the following sanctions to the initiative group or to electoral competitors:

- a) warning;
- b) cancelling the registration of the initiative group;
- c) initiating the contravention process as per the legislation;
- d) depriving from state budget allowances as a main or supplementary sanction;
- e) requesting the cancellation of electoral competitor registration.

(3) Warnings are applied by a Central Electoral Commission decision for all types of elections, as well as by a District Electoral Council decision for local elections.

(4) In case of repeated sanctioning through warning during the same electoral period for infringements related to financing of electoral campaign, the Central Electoral Commission shall impose supplementary sanction on political parties registered as electoral competitors, depriving them from state budget allowances for a period from 6 months up to one year.

(5) Cancellation of registration is applied upon the request of the Central Electoral Commission, and

In case of local elections, upon the request of the district electoral bureau. This is done by a final Court decision which shall state:

- a) the use of undeclared financial and material funds by the candidate or the spending exceeded the ceiling of financial means allocated from the Election Fund;
- b) the use of undeclared funds from abroad by the candidate;
- c) non-suspension from the position by the candidate that has such obligation. In this case, the registration of the independent candidate shall be cancelled or the respective candidate shall be eliminated from the list of the electoral competitor;
- d) violation of Article 52 (3) by the electoral competitor.

(6) In cases referred to in paragraph (5), the Central Electoral Commission or the District Electoral Council shall address a request to the Court of Appeal of Chisinau to cancel the registration of the electoral competitor by adopting a decision to this end, in parliamentary and presidential elections, or to the Court under which jurisdiction the respective District electoral council falls, in general local elections or new local elections. The Court shall consider the request and issue a decision regarding it within 5 days, but no later than the day preceding the Election Day.

Article 76. Criminal liability

(1) Shall be considered violations of this Code and be subjects to criminal liability the facts referred to in Articles 181 and 182 of the Criminal Code.

(2) The chairpersons of electoral bodies and other officials are required to notify prosecutor's office or the police, no later than on the second working day since the moment such were detected, any actions containing elements of an offense in terms of organising elections or financing of political parties and of electoral campaigns, they have found about.

Article 77. Administrative Liability

(1) Shall be considered violations of this Code and shall be subjects to Administrative Liability the facts referred to in Article 47-53 of the Administrative Code.

Article 94. Setting Representation Threshold

(1) Upon receiving, from all district electoral councils, the protocols with the votes counting results from all districts, the Central Electoral Commission shall tabulate the number of valid votes cast for each party, other socio-political organisations, every electoral bloc and independent candidate, in order to establish whether or not they have reached the minimal threshold to be represented in Parliament.

(2) The minimum threshold of representation represent the following proportions of valid votes cast for the country as a whole:

- a) for a party or socio-political organisation – 5 per cent;
- b) for an electoral bloc – 7 per cent.
- c) for an independent candidate – 2 per cent.

(3) Parties, other socio-political organizations, electoral blocs and independent candidates that received fewer votes than the percentage provided in paragraph (2) are eliminated from the procedure of mandate assignment by a decision of the Central Electoral Commission.

Article 95. Counting the Mandates obtained by the Electoral competitor

(1) The number of mandates obtained by each competitor is calculated by the Central Electoral Commission by successively dividing the number of valid votes given to each competitor, besides independent candidates, with 1,2,3,4 etc., up to the figure that corresponds to the number of seats established for the Parliament.

(2) From the results of all the divisions and the number of valid votes cast for independent candidates, it should be selected in descending order as many numbers as there are seats to be allocated. The number of the mandates assigned to each party, other socio-political organisation, or electoral bloc is equal to the quantity of numbers obtained from the row by the above-mentioned entities.

(3) Independent candidate is considered elected if the number of valid obtained votes represents at least two per cent from the valid votes given across the country.

Article 96. Assigning MPs seats

(1) The Central Electoral Commission shall assign the seats to candidates in line with the order in which they have been recorded in the lists.

(2) Candidates included in the lists of electoral competitors that surpassed the representation threshold referred to in Article 94, but have not been elected shall be declared as alternates. An alternate shall be declared as elected by the Constitutional Court, upon the request of the Central Electoral Commission, if, due to certain reasons, a seat belonging to a political party, to other social and political organization or to an electoral bloc becomes vacant. The alternate may refuse the offered seat, having filed a written application with the Central Electoral Commission to this end.

(3) If a political party, other socio-political organization or an electoral bloc has obtained a number of seats that exceeds the number of candidates included in the list, this political party, socio-political organization or electoral bloc shall receive a number of seats that is equal to the number of candidates included in the list.

(4) The remaining seats shall be assigned to other political parties, socio-political organisations or electoral blocs in the manner referred to in Article 95 (1). This procedure shall be applied as well when MP vacancies occur and the electoral competitor has no alternates or if became vacant the MP mandate obtained by an independent candidate.

Article 97. Confirmation of Results and Mandate Validation by the Constitutional Court

(1) The Central Electoral Commission shall, within 24 hours of the election results tabulation, submit to the Constitutional Court the documents referred to in Article 65 and the lists of elected members of Parliament.

(2) Within 5 days following the receipt of documents from the Central Electoral Commission, but not before the Courts have made final decisions on complaints submitted according to the legal procedures, the Constitutional Court shall confirm or invalidate, through an opinion, the legality of elections. At the same time, the Constitutional Court shall validate the mandates of the elected members of Parliament and confirm the lists of alternates.

(3). If the elections are validated, the Central Electoral Commission shall issue IDs to newly elected Members of Parliament.

Article 98. Certification of Election Results by the Central Electoral Commission

(1) The Protocol on election results, along with a Constitutional Court decision on elections compliance with the legislation, and a decision validating at least two-thirds of the seats, shall be submitted, within 2 days, to Parliament. Copies of these documents and lists of alternates confirmed shall be conveyed to the Central Electoral Commission and the President of the Republic of Moldova. The opinion and the decision of the Constitutional Court are published in the Official Gazette of the Republic of Moldova.

(2) The Central Electoral Commission shall make public the final election results within 24 hours following their receipt from the Constitutional Court.

Article 99. Invalid Elections

Elections shall be declared invalid if less than one third of the voters included in the voter lists have participated.

Article 100. Null Elections

Should the Constitutional Court establish that during elections, on the Election Day and/or during the counting procedures the provisions of this Code were infringed and that those infringements affected the voting results and the assignment of seats, the elections shall be declared null.

Article 101. Repeated Voting

(1) If elections have been declared invalid or null, within 2 weeks the Central Electoral Commission shall organize repeated elections based on the same voters' lists, for the same candidates, with the same electoral bodies.

(2) Electoral competitors found guilty for infringing the provisions of this Code shall be sanctioned or excluded from the ballot papers based on a final Court decision, and electoral councils and bureaus members which committed such infringements shall be replaced.

(3) The repeat election shall be considered valid regardless of voters' turnout.

Article 102. New Elections

(1) If following the repeated voting the elections are declared null, the Central Electoral Commission shall call the date of new elections at least after 60 days and not more than 36 months after the last elections were declared null.

(2) In the event of early elections, if even after the repeated voting, elections are declared null, the President of the Republic of Moldova shall call new elections by his decree observing the term indicated in Article 83 (3) of this Code.

(3) New elections shall be conducted pursuant to this Code.

Voting in local elections shall be conducted pursuant to Chapter 9 (Articles 55-60), to be applied accordingly.

Article 143. Counting the Votes and Tabulating the Results of Elections

(1) Votes shall be counted and local elections results shall be tabulated pursuant to Chapter 10 (Articles 61-67), to be applied accordingly.

(2) The number of votes cast for each candidate running for mayor or councillor positions; full name of the elected mayors and councillors; name of the political party or other socio-political organisation and electoral bloc, which nominated them; or the mention "independent candidate" shall be entered into the Protocols drawn up by the electoral councils and bureaus.

Article 144. Allocation of Councillors Seats

(1) The councillors' seats in district, town (municipality), sector or village (commune) councils shall be assigned by the respective District Electoral Councils.

(2) Seats in the council shall be allocated to political parties, to other socio-political organisations and to electoral blocs by dividing the number of valid votes cast for each party, other socio-political organisation and electoral bloc by 1, 2, 3, 4... etc., up to the figure that corresponds to the number of seats established for the respective constituency.

(3) From the results of all the divisions and the number of valid votes cast for independent candidates, they shall select in descending order as many numbers as per the number of seats to be allocated in the constituency. The number of mandates assigned to a political party, other socio-political organisation, or electoral bloc depends on the quantity of numbers contained in that descending range.

(4) An independent candidate shall be considered elected if the number of votes cast for him/her fits within the series of selected numbers in descending order.

(5) Council seats shall be allocated to candidates running for council in the order of their registration on the lists, beginning with the list which received most votes.

(6) If there is more than one candidate with the same number of votes for the last non-allocated seat, the District Electoral Council shall allocate the seat by drawing of lots. This fact shall be recorded in the Protocol.

(7) If a political party, other socio-political organisation, or electoral bloc is allocated a number of mandates exceeding the number of candidates on its list, the extra number selected in descending order from the respective organisation shall be eliminated and replaced by a number selected in descending order of other candidates.

(8) If only independent candidates run for councils, the District Electoral Council shall draw up a list with the number of votes cast for the candidates in descending order and allocate each candidate one mandate until the mandates are exhausted.

(9) Candidates included in the lists but not elected shall be declared alternates. When a council mandate belonging to a party, other socio-political organisation, or electoral bloc becomes vacant before the end of term, it will be allocated to one of the alternates of the respective party, socio-political organisation or electoral bloc, in the order of their inclusion in the list. If the list of alternates is exhausted, the replacement of the vacant seat is done by restoring the descending order excluding the number of the respective candidate and including the number following in the range.

(10) If the seat allocated to an independent candidate becomes vacant, the vacancy shall be completed by restoring the descending order, excluding the number belonging to the respective candidate and including the number following in the range.

(11) If only independent candidates are included on the ballot papers, in the event of a vacant seat, the alternate candidate is allocated the seat under paragraph (10) of this Article.

(12) Seats to alternates shall be allocated by the Central Electoral Commission, pursuant to this Article, to the Regulation on the procedure of cancelling and validating the mandates of councillors, approved by the Central Electoral Commission decision and based on documents held by the Central Electoral Commission.

Article 145. Election of Mayor

(1) A candidate running for mayor shall be considered elected provided that he/she obtained more than half of the valid votes cast by all participating voters.

(2) If none of candidates running for mayor received more than half of the valid votes cast, in 2 weeks, a second-round election shall be conducted between the two candidates who gathered the highest number of votes. These two candidates are listed on the ballot paper in descending order as per the number of accumulated votes in the first round. If several candidates obtained an equal number of votes in the first round, the District Electoral Council shall draw lots and record it in the Protocols.

(3) In the second-round election, the candidate who gains the highest number of votes shall be considered elected, regardless of voters' turnout. Upon tie vote, the candidate who gained the highest number of votes in the first round shall be considered elected.

Article 146. Confirmation of Elections Legality and Mandate Validation

(1) The District Electoral Councils of the first-level administrative-territorial units shall submit the Protocols on election results to the appropriate sector or municipality Courts. The Protocol of second-level administrative-territorial units shall be submitted to the Courts under which jurisdiction the electoral councils of the second-level administrative-territorial units fall. The District Electoral Council of Chisinau municipality shall submit the respective documents to the sector Court where the District Electoral Council of Chisinau municipality is located.

(2) The Courts, within 10 days after receiving the District Electoral Councils' reports, shall either confirm or invalidate the legality of elections in every district by a decision to be submitted within 24 hours after its adoption to the Central Electoral Commission and to the respective District Electoral Councils, which shall publish the final results.

(3) Concurrently with the confirmation of election legality, the Courts shall validate the mandates of elected councillors and mayors and mention this in the decision. The person elected in the positions referred to in Article 7 of the Law on the Status of Locally Elected Official shall submit his/her consent to Court to be validated in one of those positions. Courts shall also confirm the list of alternates.

(4) The council shall be considered legally constituted when mandates of at least 2/3 of the total number of councillors are validated.

(5) The District Electoral Council shall issue a document to the elected councillors and mayors certifying the new Members of the Council and the new Mayor according to the design approved by the Central Electoral Commission.

Article 147. Invalid Elections

The election shall be considered invalid in a given constituency if the voters' turnout is less than 1/4 of the number of people included in the voters' lists. The decision to declare the election invalid shall be adopted by the Central Electoral Commission based on the decisions and documents submitted by the District Electoral Councils.

Article 148. Null Elections

The elections shall be declared null if infringements of this Code have been committed during the election procedures and if those violations affected the results of voting and seat allocation. A decision in this regard shall be adopted by the Central Electoral Commission based on the decisions taken by appropriate Courts.

Article 149. Repeated Voting

(1) If in certain constituencies or polling stations, elections have been declared invalid or null, the Central Electoral Commission shall organise within 2 weeks repeated elections with the same voters' lists, same candidates and involving the same electoral councils and bureaux.

(2) Candidates found guilty of committing infringements of this Code shall be deleted from the ballot papers based on the final Court judgment. The electoral councils and bureaux which committed such infringements shall be replaced.

(3) Repeated Elections shall be conducted in strict accordance with the provisions of Chapters 9 and 10 and shall be considered valid regardless of voters' turnout.

Article 150. New Elections

(1) New elections shall be conducted if:

a) the local council has resigned, has been dissolved, or its number decreased by more than 1/3 out of the number established by the Law on Local Public Administration;

b) the mayor has resigned, was recalled or is not able to exercise his/her mandate any longer, as well as due to the deprivation of the right to hold some positions, based on a final Court decision;

c) following the repeated elections the council and/or mayor has not been elected;

d) if upon administrative-territorial reorganisation, the local public administration bodies (councils, mayors) have to be elected in the newly established administrative-territorial units.

(2) If a mayor's position became vacant in the last year before the end of the office term new elections are not conducted.

(3) If one of the circumstances set forth in paragraph (1) arises, the local public authority shall notify in writing the Central Electoral Commission within ten days after the circumstance occurred.

(4) The Central Electoral Commission shall set the date of new elections no later than 30 days after the occurrence of the circumstances referred to in paragraph (1), and no earlier than 60 days before the Election Day, provided that new elections will be held simultaneously, at most twice a year, in spring and in autumn.

(5) New elections shall be conducted in compliance with the provisions of this Code.

Article 151. Partial Elections

(1) The Central Electoral Commission within 2 weeks shall call partial elections in one or several constituencies if, after elections, the number of councillors required by law have not been elected.

(2) Partial elections for vacant mandates shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of Titles I, II and V.

(3) Partial elections shall be called by a decision of the Central Electoral Commission no more than 60 days before the Election Day.

TITLE VI REFERENDUM

Article 152. Applicability of the present Title

The provisions of this Title (Articles 152-212) shall be applicable only to the organisation and conduct of republican and local referenda.

Chapter 13 REPUBLICAN REFERENDUM

Article 153. Republican Referendum

(1) A republican referendum is held to ensure the exercise of people's power and the right to participate directly in the management and administration of public affairs.

(2) The vote in republican referenda is universal, equal, secret and freely expressed, pursuant to the Constitution and to this Code.

(3) The decisions adopted through republican referenda have supreme legal power upon their confirmation by the Constitutional Court, and have binding effect throughout the country.

Article 154. Types of Republican Referenda

(1) Depending on the legal nature of questions subject to referendum, republican referenda may be constitutional, legislative, regarding the dismissal of the President of the Republic of Moldova or consultative.

(2) The constitutional referendum subject comprises proposals to revise the Constitution.

(3) The subjects of legislative referendum are draft laws on issues of major importance.

(4) The subjects of consultative referendum are issues of national interest that are brought for public consultations that will require further, final decisions to be taken by competent public bodies. Questions proposed for consultative referendum shall be formulated in neutral, unambiguous language, without suggesting plausible responses.

Article 155. Initiating a Republican Referendum

(1) A republican referendum may be initiated by:

- a) at least 200,000 Moldovan citizens eligible to vote. In case of constitutional referendum, provisions of Article 141 (1) a) of the Constitution shall apply;
- b) at least 1/3 of members of Parliament;
- c) President of the Republic of Moldova;
- d) Government of the Republic of Moldova.

(2) Those referred to in paragraph (1) may initiate any type of referendum provided in Article 154.

Note: Article 155(2) shall be declared unconstitutional as per Constitutional Court Decision No.24 of 27.07.2017, in force as of 27.07.2017.

(3) If a referendum is initiated by those referred to in paragraph (1) a), signatures collecting lists shall be attached to the proposal on initiating the referendum.

(4) The proposal on initiating a referendum shall include questions subject to referendum stated clearly, avoiding ambiguities, as well as the purpose of conducting the referendum and its suggested date. Mutually exclusive issues shall not be subject to referendum.

Article 156. Restrictions Imposed on Holding a Republican Referendum

(1) A republican referendum may not be held if the country is under a state of emergency, siege or war, nor within 120 days after the respective status was lifted. If a date for a referendum coincides with a day declared later as a date of emergency, siege or war, then the referendum shall be de jure cancelled or postponed, pursuant to the terms of holding referendum stipulated by this Code. The decision to postpone a republican referendum shall be adopted by the body which issued the decision to hold the referendum.

(2) A republican referendum may not be held within 60 days before or after the day of parliamentary, presidential, or local general elections, only if they are being held on the same day. On the same day can't be conducted two republican referenda.

Article 157. Issues which May be Subject to Republican Referendum

(1) The following may be issues for a republican referendum:

- a) adoption of the Constitution of the Republic of Moldova and the revision of the Constitution of the Republic of Moldova;
- b) approval of constitutional laws adopted by the Parliament that revise the provisions on sovereignty, independence and unity of the state, as well as issues related to continuous neutrality of the state;
- c) dismissal of the President of the Republic of Moldova;
- d) other essential issues of public and state interest.

(2) It is binding to organise and hold referenda on the issues stated under paragraph (1) b).

Article 158. Issues which may not be subject to Republican Referendum

The following shall not be subject to republican referenda:

- a) issues related to the state taxes and budget;
- b) issues regarding amnesty or mercy;
- c) extraordinary or emergency measures for ensuring public order, people's health or security;
- d) electing, appointing or dismissing persons for/on/from positions which fall under the jurisdiction of Parliament, President and Government of the Republic of Moldova;
- e) issues falling with the jurisdiction of judicial and prosecution bodies.

Article 159. Initiating Referendum for Revising the Constitution

(1) A Referendum for revising the Constitution shall be initiated in compliance with Article 141 of the Constitution.

(2) The proposal on conducting a referendum for revising the Constitution shall be submitted to the Constitutional Court, which is required within 10 days to review the constitutionality of issues subject to referendum and to present its opinion.

(3) Following the review of constitutionality of issues subject to referendum by the Constitutional Court, the proposal to hold a referendum, along with the Constitutional Court opinion shall be submitted to the Parliament for examination.

(4) The revision of the Constitution may not be subject to referendum if it will result in the violation of fundamental human rights and freedoms or of their guarantees.

(5) If both Parliament and citizens initiate at the same time a revision of the same provisions of the Constitution, the parliamentary procedure to consider these provisions shall end.

Article 160. Initiating a Referendum to dismiss the President of the Republic of Moldova

(1) The referendum to dismiss the President of the Republic of Moldova may be initiated exclusively by the Parliament.

(2) Following the adoption of a decision regarding the dismissal of the President of the Republic of Moldova under the conditions set in Article 89 (1) and (2) of the Constitution, within 5 days the Parliament shall adopt a decision regarding the conduct of a referendum related to the respective issue. The referendum shall be conducted within the deadline provided in Article 89 (3) of the Constitution.

(3) The referendum regarding the dismissal of the President of the Republic of Moldova shall be ensured by the Central Electoral Commission.

Article 161. Decision or Decree on holding a Republican Referendum

(1) Within 6 months after receiving proposals on initiating a referendum, the Parliament shall adopt one of the following decisions:

- a) call for the referendum within at least 60 days after the decision adoption;
- b) reject the proposal to hold a referendum, in case the latter is initiated by members of Parliament;
- c) solve the issues subject to referendum without conducting the referendum.

(2) The decision or decree on holding a republican referendum shall state the date of the referendum, the title of the draft law or draft decision to be adopted, their body text and/or questions subject to referendum.

Article 162. Setting the date of Republican Referendum

(1) The date of a republican referendum shall be set forth by a Parliamentary decision if the initiative to hold the referendum belongs to citizens or members of Parliament. The date of a referendum is set forth by the President of the Republic of Moldova if the initiative belongs to him/her and is consultative by its nature.

(2) The referendum shall be called at least 60 days before the referendum date.

Article 163. Initiation of a Republican Referendum by Citizens

(1) To initiate a republican referendum, citizens shall establish an initiative group at a meeting attended by at least 300 citizens eligible to vote. At least 10 days before the meeting, the organisers shall notify, in writing, the local public authority of the locality where the meeting is to be held, and the time, venue, and purpose of that meeting.

(2) Before the meeting, the participants shall be registered, and their last and first names and place of residence shall be entered on a list.

(3) A chairperson and a secretary of the meeting shall be elected. The meeting agenda shall include discussions about the feasibility of the referendum and questions to be subject to referendum.

(4) If a majority of participants attending the meeting vote for holding a referendum, an initiative group shall be established to administer the Collecting Signatures. The group shall be composed of at least 100 citizens eligible to vote. The group shall elect from among its members the executive bureau, including a chairperson, a Deputy Chairperson and a secretary who will represent the group and manage its activity.

(5) The meeting protocol shall be drawn up containing the results of the vote on the issues included in the agenda. The documents of the meeting, including the list of participants, the Protocol that clearly and precisely state the questions proposed for referendum, and the list of initiative group members including their identity data, shall be signed by the chairperson and secretary of the meeting.

Article 164. Registration of Initiative Group

(1) The Initiative group supporting the holding of a referendum shall be registered with the Central Electoral Commission. For registration, the group shall submit:

- a) documents of citizens' meeting which elected the initiative group, attested by the mayor of the locality where the meeting took place;
- b) a written statement of consent of the initiative group members to collect signatures in support of the referendum;
- c) a written application statement for initiative group registration.

(2) Within 15 days after receiving the documents referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article the Central Electoral Commission shall make a decision regarding either the registration of the initiative group or the refusal to register the group. The decision on the registration of the initiative group shall provide the time period for Collecting Signatures, which is set between two and 3 months.

(3) Upon registration, members of the initiative group shall be issued a special document-card attesting their right to collect signatures according to a sample established by the Central Electoral Commission.

(4) Information concerning registration of the initiative group and the questions subject to republican referendum shall be made public through Media.

Article 165. Collecting Signatures

- (1) Beginning on the registration day, members of the initiative group are entitled to freely collect signatures for holding a republican referendum, hereinafter referred to as the signatures collecting list.
- (2) Signatures shall be collected according to Article 47, to be applied accordingly.

Article 166. Special Requirements for Signatures collecting lists

The question(s) proposed for republican referendum shall be written on each signatures collecting list. Collecting Signatures on lists without the text of referendum question(s) being written on them is prohibited.

Article 167. Responsibility for the Accuracy of Signatures collecting lists

- (1) A person who collects signatures must sign every page of signatures collecting lists and note that he/she personally collected the signatures and confirmed the identity of the persons whose names appear on that sheet by verifying their ID. Each page of signatures collecting lists shall be attested to affixing the stamp of the respective local public authority.
- (2) Members of the initiative group must warn all signees that they can sign only one signatures collecting list.
- (3) Signatures collecting lists that have data entered before the initiative group was registered or which have not been signed by the signature collector, or have not been attested by the stamp of the local public authority, shall be considered null and void.

Article 168. Submission and Verification of Signatures collecting lists

- (1) No later than on the last day of the signature collection term, the initiative group shall draw up a Protocol indicating the number of collected signatures, the date when the initiative group was registered, and the date when the Collecting Signatures was concluded. The Protocols signed by the initiative group members of the together with the signatures collecting lists shall be submitted to the Central Electoral Commission.
- (2) Within 15 days of signatures collecting lists submission, the Central Electoral Commission shall check the signature authenticity (in full or randomly) on the submitted lists. Signatures by persons who have signed multiple times shall be eliminated. Signatures collecting lists found in breach of Article 167(1) thereof shall be considered null and void. Upon verification of signatures collecting lists, the Central Electoral Commission shall make a decision on initiating the referendum.
- (3) If the required number of signatures was not submitted, the Central Electoral Commission shall make a decision that rejects holding the referendum and cancel the registration of the citizen initiative group.
- (4) The Protocol on the verification of signatures collecting lists, the verified signatures collecting lists, and the Central Electoral Commission decision on initiating a referendum shall be submitted to the Permanent Bureau of Parliament within 3 days.

Article 169. Constituencies, Polling Stations, Electoral Councils and Bureaus

(1) For organising and holding a republican referendum, the Central Electoral Commission shall establish administrative constituencies, which shall correspond to the second-level administrative-territorial units of the Republic of Moldova, and District Electoral Councils pursuant to the provisions of Article 28, to be applied accordingly. In case if a republican referendum is organized on the same day as parliamentary elections, electoral districts and District Electoral Commissions are created according to the criteria established by Art. 80 and 81.

(2) The duties of District Electoral Councils shall be those provided in Article 29 of this Code, to be applied accordingly.

(3) Constituencies shall be divided into polling stations, pursuant to Articles 30 and 31 thereof, to be applied accordingly. A Precinct Electoral Bureau shall be established for each polling station and exercise its duties pursuant to Article 30, 31 and 33, to be applied accordingly.

(4) The powers and duties of District Electoral Councils and Precinct Electoral Bureaus shall expire upon the confirmation of republican referendum results by the Constitutional Court.

(5) When the constituency represents only one locality and only one polling station has been created, no precinct electoral bureau shall be established, instead, its responsibilities shall be exercised by the District Electoral Council.

Article 170. Support provided to Electoral Councils and Bureaus in Holding Republican Referenda, Organising their Activity, Modifying their Composition and Dissolution

Support for electoral councils and bureaus in holding republican referenda, administration of their activities, and amendments in composition and dissolution shall be conducted pursuant to Articles 34-37 of this Code, to be applied accordingly.

Article 171. Lists of Citizens Eligible to participate in Republican Referenda

The lists of citizens eligible to participate in republican referenda (voters' lists) shall be compiled in accordance with Chapter 5 (Article 44 and Article 45), to be applied accordingly.

Article 172. Ballot Paper

(1) Ballot papers shall set up the question or the draft law that is subject to republican referendum. To the right of the question or draft law, two quadrilaterals with the words "pro" and "against" shall be placed horizontally with two circles underneath.

(2) If several questions are brought to republican referendum, each question shall be printed on a different ballot paper. In case several referenda are held at the same time, the ballot papers shall differ by colour.

(3) Ballot papers shall be drawn up in accordance with the Law on the use of languages spoken in the Republic of Moldova.

(4) Ballot papers shall be printed in a quantity that corresponds to the number of people included in the voters' lists.

(5) Ballot papers setting up the same question shall be printed in the same format, with the same font, on paper of similar colour and density.

(6) The design and text of ballot papers, and of Protocols of electoral councils and bureaus for the republican referendum, shall be approved by the Central Electoral Commission.

(7) Ballot papers shall be transmitted to District Electoral Councils 3 days prior to the republican referendum and to the Precinct Electoral Bureaus one day prior to the referendum.

Article 173. Campaigning

Debates on the questions proposed for referendum shall be conducted pursuant to Article 52 of this Code, to be applied accordingly.

Article 174. Voting

(1) Voting in the republican referendum shall be held pursuant to Chapter 9 (Articles 55-60), to be applied accordingly.

(2) Voters shall fill out the ballot paper by affixing the stamp "Voted" inside one of the two circles under the quadrilaterals with the words "pro" or "against", thus expressing their preference.

Article 175. Observation of Republican Referendum and Media Coverage

Observation and coverage of the referendum shall be conducted pursuant to Chapter 11 (Article 68 and Article 69), to be applied accordingly.

Article 176. Counting and Tabulation of Republican Referendum Results

(1) The results of the republican referendum shall be tabulated under Chapter 10 (Articles 61-65) of this Code, to be applied accordingly.

(2) The number of votes cast for "pro" and "against" shall be entered into the Protocol that displays the tabulation of republican referendum results.

(3) The results of republican referendum shall be reviewed by the Central Electoral Commission, which shall take a decision thereto.

Article 177. Validation of Republican Referendum Results

(1) The Central Electoral Commission validation decision and the Protocol on the referendum results shall be submitted to the Constitutional Court.

(2) The Constitutional Court, within ten days, shall consider the documents submitted by the Central Electoral Commission and either confirm or invalidate the results of the republican referendum.

Article 178. Adopting, Publishing and Enacting the Decision subject to Republican Referendum

(1) A republican referendum proposal shall be considered adopted if it gained the majority of voters who participated in the referendum. If a constitutional law is subject to referendum, which contains amendments of provisions on the sovereign, independent and unitary character of the state, or deals with provisions related to the continuous neutrality of the state, it shall be considered adopted if it gained at least half of the voters entered on voters' lists. The decision regarding the dismissal of President of the Republic of Moldova shall be considered as adopted through the republican referendum if the number of voters was equal or higher than the number of voters who elected the President of the Republic of Moldova, but not less than half of the number of voters who have participated in the referendum.

(2) The adopted referendum proposal shall be published in a special issue of the Official Gazette of the Republic of Moldova. The date of adoption is considered to be the day when the referendum was held. The referendum proposal shall take effect upon its publication in the Official Gazette or on the date specified in its body text.

Article 179. Cancelling or Amending the Decision Adopted through a Republican Referendum

A decision adopted by a republican referendum shall be cancelled or amended through republican referendum, or through the procedures provided for the Constitution revision. The respective provisions do not cover the decision for the dismissal of President of the Republic of Moldova.

Article 180. Documents for Republican Referendum

Referendum documents shall be stored pursuant to Article 67 of this Code to be applied accordingly.

Article 181. Invalid Republican Referendum

The Central Electoral Commission shall declare a referendum invalid if less than 1/3 of citizens entered in voters' lists participated in the referendum.

Article 182. Null Republican Referendum

The Constitutional Court shall declare a referendum null throughout the country or in certain administrative-territorial units, if serious violations of this Code occurred during the voting or vote counting, which affected the referendum results as a whole.

Article 183. Repeated Republican Referendum

(1) If the referendum is declared null, the Central Electoral Commission within one month shall organise a repeated referendum, throughout the entire country or in certain administrative-territorial units.

(2) The electoral councils and bureaus found guilty of violations of this Code shall be replaced.

(3) The repeated republican referendum shall be organised and conducted pursuant to this Title and Code.

Article 184. New Republican Referendum

A new republican referendum for the same proposal can be held, but this must occur at least two years later after the date of the previous referendum.

Chapter 14 LOCAL REFERENDUM

Article 185. Local Referendum

A local referendum is the vote of people on issues of specific concern for the village (commune), sector, town (municipality), district, or special status territorial-administrative unit. Mayors of villages (communes) and towns (municipalities) are recalled through local referenda.

Article 186. Restrictions on holding Local Referenda

(1) A local referendum may not be held in territories under a state emergency, siege or war. If the local referendum date is called for the day, on which later the state of emergency, siege or war is declared, then the referendum shall be cancelled de jure or postponed, pursuant to the terms of holding referendum stipulated by this Code.

(2) Local referenda may not be conducted 120 days prior to or 120 days after the day of conducting any type of elections or referenda in the same territory, unless they are conducted on the same day.

(3) The decision to postpone a local referendum shall be made by the Central Electoral Commission at the proposal of the local council or representative authority of the special status administrative-territorial unit which issued the initial decision to hold the referendum.

(4) Local referenda on recalling a mayor may be initiated one year after the respective mayor has been in office, or one year after the last referendum on his/her mandate was held. A referendum to recall a mayor may not be initiated 6 months before the end of his/her term.

Article 187. Issues subject to Local Referenda

(1) Issues that are of special importance for the respective locality, and that fall only within the jurisdiction of local public authorities, may be subject to local referenda.

(2) The text of the issue proposed for local referendum shall be drafted in a neutral manner, without any ambiguities or language which might suggest an answer. It is not permitted to formulate mutually exclusive issues.

(3) A referendum to recall a mayor may be initiated when a mayor does not act in the interests of the local community, does not properly exercise his/her duties, and does not act in accordance with current laws or breaches moral and ethical norms, and such facts have been confirmed in the established manner.

Article 188. Issues that may not be subject to Local Referenda

The following issues may not be submitted to local referenda:

- a) those of national interest, which fall under the jurisdiction of Parliament, Government or other central public authorities, pursuant to the provisions covered by the Constitution and legislation;
- b) those of internal and external policy of the state;
- c) those which are contrary to the provisions of the Constitution and of the legislation of the Republic of Moldova;

- d) taxes and budget;
- e) extraordinary or emergency measures for ensuring public order, people's health and security;
- f) electing, appointing or dismissing persons for/on/from positions which fall under the jurisdiction of Parliament, Government or President of the Republic of Moldova;
- g) recalling a mayor who has been dismissed by a final Court decision;
- h) issues falling under the jurisdiction of Courts and Prosecutor's office;
- i) amendments to administrative-territorial subordination of localities, except for the cases provided in the Law on special legal status of Gagauzia (Gagauz-Yeri).

Article 189. Setting the Date of Local Referenda

The date of a local referendum is established by the Central Electoral Commission at the proposal of a village (commune), sector, town (municipality), District Electoral Council, or representative authority of the special status administrative-territorial unit.

Article 190. Initiating Local Referenda

A local referendum may be initiated by:

- a) 1/2 of the elected councillors, while in case of recalling the mayor, a local referendum is initiated by secret voting of two thirds of elected councillors;
- b) mayor of the village (commune), town (municipality), except where a referendum to recall a mayor is being initiated;
- c) representative authority of the special status administrative-territorial unit;
- d) 10 per cent of citizens eligible to vote who are residents of the respective administrative-territorial unit.

Article 191. Registration of Initiative Group

(1) If the initiative to hold a referendum comes from citizens, an initiative group shall be established, including no less than 20 citizens eligible to vote and residing in the respective administrative-territorial unit. At least 30 citizens should attend the meeting for establishing the initiative group. At least 3 days before the meeting, the initiators shall notify the mayor in writing about the time, venue and purpose of the meeting.

(2) An initiative group is registered by the local public authorities within 5 days following the submission by the group of: a written statement requesting registration, the Protocol of group establishment, and the question(s) subject to referendum. Where a referendum on recalling the mayor is being initiated, the initiative group is to be registered by the sector (district) or municipal Court where the respective locality is located.

(3) The decision confirming registration shall contain the time period for signature collection of between 30 and 60 days, and the questions subject to local referendum.

(4) Upon registration of initiative group, its members shall be issued a special document-card attesting their right to collect signatures according to rules established by the Central Electoral Commission.

(5) Information regarding the registration of Initiative group shall be published in the local press.

Article 192. Collecting Signatures

(1) Members of initiative group registered pursuant to Article 191 shall have the right to collect signatures that support holding a local referendum.

(2) Signatures shall be collected according to Article 47 of this Code, to be applied accordingly.

(3) For holding a local referendum, at least 10 per cent of signatures of those eligible to vote and residing within the respective administrative-territorial unit are required.

Article 193. Special Requirements for Signatures collecting list

The question(s) proposed for referendum shall be written on each page of signatures collecting lists. Collecting Signatures on lists without the referendum question is prohibited.

Article 194. Responsibility for the Accuracy of Signatures collecting lists

(1) The person collecting the signatures shall sign every page of signatures collecting lists and make a note stipulating that he/she personally collected the signatures and confirmed the identity of the persons whose names appear on that sheet by verifying their ID. Each page shall be authenticated by affixing the stamp of the respective local public authority.

(2) Persons collecting signatures on the signatures collecting lists shall bear responsibility for the authenticity of the data on the signatures collecting lists, and shall warn the person who signs that he/she may sign only in one signatures collecting list.

(3) Signatures collecting lists on which data have been entered before the Initiative group was registered, or those which have not been signed by the signature collector, or have not been validated by a stamp from local public authorities, shall be considered null and void.

Article 195. Submission and Verification of Signatures collecting lists

(1) Signatures collecting lists shall be submitted, after authentication, to the local council or to the representative authority of the special status administrative-territorial unit. Where a local referendum to recall the mayor is being initiated, signatures collecting lists are submitted to the sector (district) or municipal Court where the respective locality is located.

(2) Signatures collecting lists submitted by an initiative group shall be verified within 15 days. Signatures by persons who have signed the signatures collecting lists multiple times shall be deleted. If upon verification it is established that the required number of signatures has not been collected, then the procedure shall be ceased and the initiative group registration shall be cancelled.

Article 196. Adoption and Publication of the Decision on Holding Local Referendum

(1) Within 15 days after submitting the signatures collecting lists or after the adoption of a decision by the local council, by the representative authority of the administrative-territorial unit or by the mayor, the respective local council or the representative authority of the special status administrative-territorial unit shall either approve or reject the proposal to hold the local referendum.

(2) The decision on holding the referendum shall contain:

- a) a proposal on the date of holding the referendum that can be held at least after one month and no later than 45 days of the day the decision was adopted;
