communicated to the Ministry of Justice by the Union of Turkish Bar Associations. The provisions of the sixth and seventh paragraphs of Article 8 will be applied here, as well, by analogy.

The attorney or the attorney partnership concerned will have the right to continue their practice of attorneyship until the decision on deletion from directory or the register of the attorney partnership becomes final. However, the disciplinary board of the bar association may temporarily prohibit the attorney or the attorney partnership from practice in the event it is deemed prejudicial to have them continue their practice until the decision on deletion from directory or the register of the attorney partnership becomes final.

ircumstances necessitating deletion from directory

Article 72 – The attorney’s name will be deleted from the directory under the following circumstances:

- a) Loss at a later date of the qualifications required on the basis of this Law for admission into attorneyship.

- c) (Amended on the basis of Article 4667/43 dated 2 May 2001) An office not being opened in the jurisdictional area of the bar association concerned within three months; or the closing down of the office or its relocation outside the jurisdictional area of the bar association concerned; or the failure, despite reminders, of the attorney to enrol with another bar association in whose jurisdictional area he/she practices attorneyship on a permanent basis.

However, an attorney discovered later than five years after the date of issuance of his/her licence to have been engaged in one of the activities listed in Article 11, with the exception of activities incompatible with the respectability of the profession, may be re-entered in the directory if he/she pays the bar association three times the amount of the payments or revenues he/she has received during the apprenticeship period.

The bar association may desist from inviting the attorney for a hearing in accordance with the Article 71 if the office address submitted to the bar association is vacated and a new address not submitted.

Right of re-entry in the directory

Article 73 – An attorney proving the discontinuation of the circumstances necessitating deletion from the directory will gain the right to be re-entered in the directory. However, the management board of the bar association may, if it deems necessary and by explaining the reasons, require the attorney requesting re-entry in the directory, to prove the presence of all or part of the qualifications sought for the initial entry.

With the exception of the provision on the issuance of licences, Articles 7, 8, and 9 of the present Law will be applied by analogy to requests for re-entry in the directory. An attorney whose re-entry in the directory has been approved by the bar association with which he/she was formerly enrolled will not be required to pay admission dues one more time.

Article 74 – The licences of those dismissed from the profession by a criminal or disciplinary sentence and those finally convicted of crimes stated in Article 5, Subparagraph a will be withdrawn and cancelled by the management board of the bar association and their names permanently deleted from the directory.

(Amended on the basis of Article 4667/44 dated 2 May 2001) The attorney may raise an objection to the decision made by the management board of the bar association with the Union of Turkish Bar Associations within fifteen days as of the date of notice. The decisions made by the Union of Turkish Bar Associations on the objections will become final if no decision is made by the Ministry of Justice within two months as of the date of their receipt by the Ministry of Justice or if the decisions are approved. However, the Ministry of Justice will return the decisions it does not deem appropriate to the Union of Turkish Bar Associations for reconsideration together with the reasons for return. The decisions thus returned will be considered as approved if passed unchanged by a two thirds majority vote of the Management Board of the Union of Turkish Bar Associations; otherwise they will be considered as not approved. The result will be communicated to the Ministry of Justice by the Union of Turkish Bar Associations. The provisions of the sixth and seventh paragraphs of Article 8 will be applied here, as well, by analogy.

The attorneyship fee may be agreed as a certain percentage of the entity or money to be litigated or adjudicated, not to exceed twenty-five percent.

Contracts to be made in accordance with the second paragraph may not bear any terms to the effect that part of the non-monetary property and rights under litigation will be owned in kind by the attorney.

No legal representation fee may be agreed below the minimum attorneyship fee tariff. Cases of accepting a commission free of charge will be reported to the management board of the bar association. (Amended third and fourth sentence: 13/1/2004 - 5043/Article 5) In circumstances where no attorneyship fee was agreed, or where there was no written contract between the parties concerning the fee, or where the fee is unclear or disputable, or where the provision relating to the fee is deemed invalid, in proceedings and work the value of which can be measured in monetary terms, an amount for legal representation fees payable to the attorney for his/her efforts work on that part of the claim which was upheld, which shall be a sum between 10% and 20% of the value of the object of litigation on the date that the verdict was confirmed, shall be determined by the authority competent to examine objections with regard to fees, with the proviso that it shall not be lower than the fee tariffs. In proceedings and work the value of which cannot be measured in monetary terms, the minimum legal representation fee tariff shall be applicable.

Article 166 – An attorney may withhold the property, money, and all kinds of other securities given by or acquired on behalf of his/her client to an extent proportionate with the amount due to the attorney until the attorneyship fee and costs have been paid.

An attorney will have preference over other creditors on property retained or acquired by his/her client as a result of the attorney's work, and on the money to be collected or the property to be taken from the opposite party to the suit on the basis of the decision of the court, with regard to the attorneyship fee agreed by contract and adjudicated by the judge. The preference will take order of priority based on the date the power of attorney has been drawn up or, in the case of a general power of attorney, the date when the first official application has been made on behalf of the client in connection with the lawsuit or case for which the attorneyship fee is to be paid. (Additional sentences: Article 4667/79 dated 2 May 2001) In the event of the client's bankruptcy, the attorneyship fee will also carry preference. However, the provision of the first paragraph of Article 206 of the Enforcement and Bankruptcy Law number 2004 dated 9 June 1932 is reserved.

When forcible execution of a court decision is initiated, the enforcement office will immediately serve a notice, to be drawn up at the same time as the execution order, to the attorney of the party requesting enforcement action whose name is indicated in the court decision, collecting the expense from the party requesting enforcement action. The subsequent stages of the execution may not commence until such notice is served. The provision of Article 59 of the Enforcement and Bankruptcy Law number 2004 dated 9 June 1932 will be applied with regard to the expenses to be incurred in connection with the notice to be served to the attorney.

Article 167 – (Amended on the basis of Article 4667/80 dated 2 May 2001; Cancelled: By verdict of the Constitutional Court, judgment number E 2003/98, K 2004/31 of 3/3/2004.)

Article 168 – (Amended on the basis of Article 4667/81 dated 2 May 2001) Every September, the management boards of bar associations each prepare a tariff indicating the minimum limits of the attorneyship fees to be charged for actions in the juridical authority and other actions, and forward it to the Union of Turkish Bar Associations.

⁴² The heading of this Article has been changed from "Suits to be filed by attorneys on attorneyship fees" to its present wording by Article 80 of Law no. 4667 dated 2 May 2001.

The tariff to be prepared by the Management Board of the Union of Turkish Bar Associations by taking into consideration the recommendations of the bar associations will be completed by the end of October of the same year and submitted to the Ministry of Justice. (Additional sentence: 16/6/2009-5904/Article 35) With this proviso, that in the tariff which is drawn up, the legal representation fee for litigation with respect to taxes, dues, charges and similar financial obligations belonging to the general budget, to Special Provincial Administrations, and to municipalities and villages, together with increases imposed thereupon and penalties imposed thereunder, and for all manner of litigation arising from the application of the Law on Procedures for Collection of Public Receivables, Law No. 6183 shall be determined as a fixed amount. The tariff shall be deemed to be confirmed if approved by the Ministry of Justice or if no decision is issued by the Ministry within a period of one month as from the date of its receipt of the tariff. However, the Ministry of Justice shall return any tariff it does not deem appropriate to the Union of Turkish Bar Associations for reconsideration any tariff which it does not consider appropriate, together with its grounds for this decision. A tariff thus returned shall be deemed approved if passed by a two thirds majority of the Management Board of the Union of Turkish Bar Associations. Otherwise it shall be deemed not to have been approved, and the Union of Turkish Bar Associations shall notify the Ministry of Justice concerning the result. The provisions of the sixth paragraph of Article 8 will be applied here by analogy.

The tariff in effect on the date legal assistance was completed or a decision was passed at the end of the suit will be taken as the basis in the adjudication of the attorneyship fee.

Article 169 – (Amended on the basis of Article 2329/2 dated 31 October 1980) The amount of the attorneyship fee to be imposed on the opposite party by the judicial authorities may not be less than or more than three times the amount indicated in the attorneyship fee tariff. (Second paragraph repealed on the basis of Article 4667/82 dated 2 May 2001)

Article 170 – (Repealed on the basis of Article 3256/29 dated 22 January 1986)

Obligation to complete the job and delegation of others

Article 171 – (Amended on the basis of Article 4667/83 dated 2 May 2001) Attorneys will follow the jobs they are commissioned with through to their completion in accordance with statutory provisions and regardless of the absence of a written contract.

If the power of attorney given to an attorney authorises the delegation of others, the attorney may perform the job together with another attorney or delegate the job to another attorney unless otherwise stated expressly in the contract. If the power of attorney includes a general authorization to represent the client and delegate others in all suits to be filed and jobs to be followed up after the date it was drawn up, the attorney may perform the job together with another attorney or delegate another attorney to perform the job without having recourse to obtaining a separate power of attorney from the client in all suits and jobs after such date.

The attorney's responsibility to the client will continue in circumstances stated in the second paragraph. The attorney will be responsible both in person and jointly and severally with the other attorneys for the malpractice of and the damages caused by the other attorneys with whom he/she works together or to whom he/she has fully delegated the job. However, this provision will not be applied to attorneys who fully delegate their jobs to others because of an obligation to work elsewhere in one of the jobs stated in Article 12.

If an attorney has entered in partnership with other attorneys for the performance of a job, he/she may not claim a separate fee from the client for this arrangement; nor may the other attorneys claim any fee for same. If the job has been fully delegated to another attorney, the delegating and the delegated attorneys may claim from the client proportionate portions of the fee corresponding to their respective amounts of work, provided that the total does not exceed the contracted fee. However, if the delegating attorneys has received his/her fee in advance from the client, he/she must pay to the delegated attorney the amount which is in excess of the portion corresponding to the delegating attorney's work.

Commissioning of another attorney by the client

Article 172 – The client may include other attorneys in the prosecution and defence stages of the job with the written consent of the attorney with whom he/she has made the initial contract. The client will request the consent of the first attorney with a letter to be delivered or officially sent to the latter, giving him/her at least one week to respond. The absence of a response within the designated period will mean that consent has been granted by the attorney.

The attorneyship contract will be terminated automatically if the first attorney does not grant his/her consent. The client must pay the full attorneyship fee to an attorney who declines from giving consent.

In the event that other attorneys also participate in the performance of the job, the client may not curtail the fee of the first attorney. In such a case, the provision of the third paragraph of Article 171 will be applied regarding the responsibility of attorneys to clients.

The specific character of the attorneyship fee

Article 173 – Unless otherwise stated in the contract, the attorneyship fee agreed is exclusively for the specific job the attorney has undertaken; and cross-action, other suits and executory proceedings regardless of connection and relation, and all kinds of legal assistance will be subject to separate fees.

All taxes, duties, charges, and expenses required for the performance of the job commissioned to the attorney, or for obtaining the result of the job after performance will be under the responsibility of the client who will pay them to the attorney or where payable upon the first request by the attorney. A sufficient amount must have been paid by the client to the attorney in advance in order that such expenses may be paid by the attorney. The travel expenses to be incurred by the attorney in connection with the job and any indemnities to which the attorney is liable for vacating a previous job position will be paid separately by the client in accordance with the relevant contract. The attorney may not be forced to travel unless such expenses are reimbursed in advance. Contracts contrary to the provision are permitted.

Discontinuation of work by the attorney, dismissal of the attorney, and default in the payment of the attorneyship fee

Article 174 – An attorney who discontinues the work he/she has undertaken without a rightful cause may not claim any fee and will be under the obligation to return any amounts he/she has received in advance.

The attorneyship fee will be paid in full if the attorney is dismissed. However, payment of the fee will not be required if the attorney has been dismissed due to his/her fault or negligence. The attorney will not be obliged to commence work if the fee required to be paid to the attorney in advance is not paid. All kinds of liabilities to arise in this connection will rest with the client. The same provision will be applied with regard to liability if the attorney is disabled from performing the job and obtaining its result due to the non-fulfilment of the other payment obligations written in the contract.

Address of the client

Article 175 – Any and all notices served by the attorney to the address written in the power of attorney given by the client will be considered as having been delivered to the client in person. Changes of address will be communicated to the attorney by the client by registered mail within three days at the latest.

Liabilities to arise from the impossibility of serving notice at the client's address or from failure to communicate the changes of address will rest with the client

Provisional Article 2 – Of the attorneys whose total length of service countable towards retirement from the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey is not less than fifteen years at the date of entry effect of the present Law, (Amended on the basis of Article 1238/3 dated 26 February 1970) Those who have departed prior to 7 July 1969 for any reason whatsoever from the official duty or service at which they paid retirement deductions may, in accordance with the following provisions, buy back and credit the full length of their past active service in attorneyship without a Social Security Association insurance, either, until 7 July 1969, or that portion of this period sufficient to add up to twenty-five years together with their former services countable towards retirement, provided that they are not receiving a retirement or disability pension.

Those buying back and crediting the full length of their past active service in attorneyship may maintain their relationship with the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey in accordance with the provisions in Subparagraph B below. Those who do not wish to maintain their relationship with the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey and those who have brought their length of service countable towards retirement up to twenty-five years by buying back and crediting past service will receive a retirement pension in accordance with the provisions below.

Those who have departed for any reason whatsoever from the official duty or service at which they paid retirement deductions on or after the date of entry into effect of the present Law may maintain their relationship with the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey for a total period not to exceed thirty years.

In order to buy back and credit past service as stated in Subparagraph A, the attorney must apply to the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey in writing through the bar association he/she is enrolled in within three months as of the date the respective bar association joined collective insurance. The amount to be become indebted and credited will be equivalent to the total amount of the deductions (including the employer's contribution) that ought to have been paid in accordance with the provisions of the Law of the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey for the length of the period of active service in attorneyship until the date of entry into effect of the present Law, starting with the attorney's seniority at his/her most recent salary grade or allowance grade in the official duty or service where he/she formerly paid retirement deductions to the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey, and assuming that the attorney has stepped through promotions of grade every two or three years depending on the minimum interval between promotions applicable to that particular official duty or service. However, the deductions and the contribution of the employing organisation will be calculated on the basis of the provisions of the Law of the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey in effect in the past years to which they belong.

The sum of the period become indebted and the periods of former official duty or service subject to the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey may not exceed thirty years. Buying back any portion of the period of active service in attorneyship in excess of this figure is not permitted. The amount to be become indebted will be repaid either as a lump sum not later than one month from the date of the notice to be served by the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey or in ten equal instalments over ten years, depending on the attorney's declared choice. Attorneys who have recovered their deductions at their departure from their former official duty or service subject to the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey will be under the obligation to return the entire amount, together with legal interest, to the Fund within the period of repayment of the lump sum or the first instalment of the amount become indebted. Those who do not return their deduction within the designated period may not benefit from the provisions of this Article.

A total period of twenty-five years is sufficient for entitlement to a retirement pension. In the case of repayment in instalments, disability pension or widow and orphan pension will be paid to the person or the entitled heirs of the attorneys who become disabled or die before repaying their debts in full, as of the beginning of the month following the disability or death, in accordance with the provisions of Law number 5434. For those benefiting from Subparagraph B through the reference of the second paragraph of Subparagraph A, this period will commence on the date they received notice of the acceptance of their request for buying back and crediting past service by the Fund.

The obligation to pay deductions to the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey commences as of the beginning of the month following the date on which notice is served to the applicant of the acceptance of his/her application to benefit from Subparagraph B by the Fund. The deductions (including the employer's contribution) will be paid in the first week of each month directly to the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey or through a bank to be designated by the Fund.

The deduction and the employer's contribution will be calculated on the basis of successive salary grades starting with the attorney's seniority at his/her most recent salary grade or allowance grade in the official duty or service where he/she formerly paid retirement deductions to the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey, and assuming that the attorney has stepped through promotions of grade every two or three years depending on the minimum interval between promotions applicable to that particular official duty or service.

Relationship maintained with the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey on the basis of Subparagraph B will be terminated as of the beginning of the month following the date when the length of service countable towards retirement of the attorney concerned equals thirty years, when they request in writing the termination of their relationship with the Fund, when they die or become disabled under the Law of the Retirement Fund of the Republic of Turkey, or when they default in repayment within the one-month period granted by the Fund on the basis of the regulations governing buying back past service; and they, or their entitled heirs, will start receiving a retirement, disability, or widow and orphan pension in accordance with Law number 5434.

Those whose total length of service countable towards retirement is fifteen years or more including the period they become indebted in accordance with Provisional Articles 3, 4, and 5 may benefit from the provision in Subparagraph B of this Article.
