7. The decision on the appointment and dismissal of the Commissioner of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine on Human Rights shall be adopted by the Verkhovna Rada an open ballot by a majority of votes of People's Deputies from the constitutional composition of the Verkhovna Rada.

8. The decision on the appointment and dismissal of the Commissioner of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine on Human Rights shall be formalised by a respective resolution of the Verkhovna Rada";

c) to supplement Article 208⁴ to read as follows:

"Article 208⁴. Procedure for Appointment of Judges of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine

1. Under sub-paragraph 26 paragraph 1 Article 85 of the Constitution of Ukraine, the Verkhovna Rada shall appoint Judges of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine.

2. The selection of candidates for the position of a Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine shall be carried out on a competitive basis.

A committee, the subject matter of which is the legal status of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine, shall carry out preparation of consideration on a competitive basis of candidates for the position of a judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine in the Verkhovna Rada.

3. Not later than three months before the expiration of the term of office or attaining the maximum age of a Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine or not later than one month from the day of the vacancy on the position of Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine in the event that the powers of the Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine are terminated or he or she is dismissed from office on the grounds stipulated by Article 149¹ of the Constitution of Ukraine, the Apparatus of the Verkhovna Rada at the submission of the committee, the competence of which includes the legal status of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine, shall publish information on the official website of the Verkhovna Rada and inform the deputy factions (deputy groups) about the beginning of accepting proposals from deputy factions (deputy groups) regarding candidates for the position of a Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine. The deputy faction (deputy group) may offer one candidate for each vacant position of a Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine.

The right to submit a proposal regarding a candidate for a position of a Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine may also be fulfilled by a group of non-factional People's Deputies in the amount of not less than the quantitative composition of the smallest deputy group.

4. The deputy faction (deputy group), a group of non-factional People's Deputies shall submit a proposal regarding a candidate for the position of a Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine together with a statement of the person who has declared his or her intention to take up the position of a Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine and the documents specified in paragraph 4 Article 12 of the Law of Ukraine "On the Constitutional Court Ukraine", to the committee, which subject matter is the legal status of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine, within thirty calendar days from the day of the announcement of the beginning of the acceptance of the proposals of deputy factions (deputy groups).

5. Information on proposals of deputy factions (deputy groups), as well as groups of non-factional People's Deputies (in case of submission) and about persons who are applying for being elected as Judges of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine, together with autobiographies and motivational letters of candidates, shall be published by the Apparatus of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine on the official web-site of the Verkhovna Rada on the next working day after the deadline for accepting applications of candidates.

6. The committee, which competence includes the legal status of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine, shall examine the application of a person who has declared his or her intention to hold office of a Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine, and the documents submitted with the proposals of deputy factions (deputy groups), and decide on compliance of the person with the requirements established by the Constitution of Ukraine, the Law of Ukraine "On the Constitutional Court of Ukraine".

Candidates, regarding whom the decision is made about their non-compliance with the requirements established by the Constitution of Ukraine, the Law of Ukraine "On the Constitutional Court of Ukraine", shall terminate participation in the competition.

The documents of a candidate for the position of a Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine, who meets such requirements, shall be submitted to the Apparatus Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine by the committee, which competence includes the legal status of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine, for the organisation of a special check on this candidate.

Within three days after receiving information on the results of the special check from the central executive authority, which implements the state policy in the field of civil service, the Apparatus of Verkhovna Rada passes a certificate on the results of the special check to the committee, which competence includes the legal status of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine.

After the receipt of a certificate on the results of the special check regarding all candidates to the position of a Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine the committee, which competence includes the legal status of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine shall hold interview with the candidates who have passed special check.

Following the results of interviews with candidates, the committee, which competence includes the legal status of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine, shall adopt a recommendation for each candidate for the position of Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine.

The committee, which competence includes the legal status of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine, shall submit for consideration to the Verkhovna Rada concerning each candidate for a position of a Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine, a recommendation, a certificate on the results of the special check and other documents submitted by the candidate.

7. All documents (except for restricted information) specified in the seventh paragraph paragraph 6 of this article shall be submitted to People's Deputies no later than three days before the consideration of the relevant issue by the Verkhovna Rada.

8. Each candidate shall have the right to make a speech at the plenary session of the Verkhovna Rada before the beginning of the vote.

People's Deputies may ask a candidate questions at a plenary session of the Verkhovna Rada regarding any information concerning the candidate, except information related to his or her private life and for which there are no reasonable grounds to consider that it may be important for determining the candidate's ability to properly exercise the powers of the Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine, as well as information constituting state secret.

Representatives of deputy factions (deputy groups), representatives of committees, and People's Deputies shall take part in the discussion of candidates for the position of a Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine.

9. After the candidates' speeches and discussion of the candidates, a vote shall be held.

10. Election to a position of a Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine shall be carried out by the Verkhovna Rada by open rating vote for each candidate separately.

The Verkhovna Rada shall appoint the Judges of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine with a list determined upon the results of the rating vote, according to the number of vacant positions by open ballot, by the majority of the votes of the People's Deputies comprising the constitutional composition of the Verkhovna Rada.

In the event that there is one vacancy for a position of a Judge of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine, the Verkhovna Rada, by the majority of the votes cast by the People's Deputies comprising the constitutional composition of the Verkhovna Rada by open ballot, shall appoint to the position the candidate who, according to the results of the rating vote, received the largest number of votes of People's Deputies.

If the decision to appoint Judges (Judge) of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine is not adopted, a repeat competition shall be announced, which shall be conducted in accordance with the procedure specified by this article.

11. The decision to appoint Judges of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine shall be formalised by a resolution of the Verkhovna Rada";

10) in Article 36 of the Law of Ukraine "On the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine" (The Official Bulletin of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine, 2014, No. 13, p. 222):

to exclude the words "as well as for official interpretation of the Constitution and laws of Ukraine" from the first paragraph;

to supplement with paragraph 2 to read as follows:

"2. The interests of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine during the consideration of cases in the Constitutional Court of Ukraine shall be represented by a permanent representative of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine in the Constitutional Court of Ukraine";

11) In the Law of Ukraine "On Civil Service" (The Official Bulletin of the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine, 2016, No. 4, p. 43; 2007, Nos. 7-8, p.50):

3) to supplement paragraph 3 Article 3 with sub-paragraphs 11¹ and 11² to read as follows:

"11¹) Judges of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine;

11²) permanent representative of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine in the Constitutional Court of Ukraine";

6) in Article 91:

to supplement paragraph 2 after the words "specified in paragraph one of this article" with the words "except the Head of the Secretariat of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine";

to supplement after paragraph 6 a new paragraph to read as follows:

"7. Head of Secretariat of the Constitutional Court of Ukraine, his First Deputy and Deputy shall be appointed and dismissed in the manner prescribed by the Law of Ukraine "On the Constitutional Court of Ukraine".

With regard to this, paragraph 7 shall be considered to be paragraph 8.

10. The Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine shall:

within one month from the day this Law comes into force prepare and submit for consideration by the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine its proposals on funding high-priority measures to implement this Law;

within three months from the day this Law comes into force bring its normative acts and ensure that ministries and other central executive authorities bring their normative acts in conformity to this Law;

provide in the Law of Ukraine "On the State Budget of Ukraine for 2017" and draft laws on the State Budget of Ukraine for the following years, for the expenditures associated with the implementation of the provisions of this Law.

Section IV TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. The Constitutional Court shall terminate any constitutional proceedings, as may have been initiated prior to this Law becoming effective, in the cases upon constitutional petitions concerning official interpretation of laws of Ukraine (specific provisions thereof) and in the cases upon constitutional appeals.

Constitutional petitions concerning official interpretation of laws of Ukraine (specific provisions thereof) and constitutional appeals received by the Constitutional Court prior to this Law becoming effective, where constitutional proceedings in such cases have not been initiated, shall be returned to the Secretariat of Court to their authors.

2. Cases where constitutional proceedings have been initiated shall be considered in the form determined by the Grand Chamber.

3. The institute of a Special Adviser shall be established temporarily, until January 1, 2020, to provide expert assistance in constitutional proceedings in the cases upon constitutional complaints in the Constitutional Court.

To exercise the functions of a Special Adviser, the Constitutional Court may invite a former judge from a foreign body of constitutional jurisdiction or a representative of an international governmental organisation which statutory mission concerns constitutional law. A citizen of a state recognised by the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine to be aggressor may not be invited to carry out these functions.

Special Adviser, prior to the hearing of a case by the Senate or by the Grand Chamber, may provide his or her written substantiated legal opinion (amicus curiae) in the case.

Activities of a Special Adviser shall be supported at the expense of international technical assistance or by international organisations.
