6. All formal complaints shall be recorded and archived by the respective Competent Authority, which shall immediately provide a written notice to the respective Council on the receipt of such complaint.

7. The Competent Authority pursuant to paragraph 1 of this article, shall review the complaint within thirty (30) days from the day it has received the complaint and shall proceed in accordance with Article 12, paragraph 6 of the Law unless it determines that the complaint is evidently frivolous, unsubstantiated, not related to a disciplinary offence or subject to statutory limitation. The Competent Authority shall immediately inform the person who has submitted the complaint in writing of its decision. A copy of the decision shall also be submitted to the respective Council.

8. All decisions of the Competent Authority must be in writing and include the reasons for the decision, which shall be published without delay, but no later than fifteen (15) days by the respective councils or the competent authority on their official website.

9. If the Competent Authority fails to review and decide on the complaint in a timely manner or fails to notify the person who has submitted a complaint regarding the decision taken in relation to the complaint submitted, it is considered to have committed a disciplinary violation.

10. In cases where disciplinary procedures are initiated against the Competent Authority according to paragraph 9 of this article, the Authority that initiates the procedure shall examine the complaint that has not been processed as per paragraph 9 of this article.

(Article 8 of Draft Law on Amending and Supplementing Law No. 06/L-057 on the Disciplinary Liability of Judges and Prosecutors)

Statutory limitation

A Competent Authority shall not request the initiation of investigations, and the Council shall not initiate investigations against a judge or prosecutor for disciplinary offenses if five (5) years have passed from the time that the alleged disciplinary offense has been committed, unless the disciplinary offence constitutes criminal offence. In that case, the provisions of the Criminal Code in relation to the statutory limitations shall be applicable.

Article 11 Criminal offense

~~1. In cases when the alleged disciplinary offense contains elements of a criminal offense, the Competent Authority shall ex officio refer the case to the State Prosecutor and provide written notification thereof to the Council and the Ombudsperson.~~

~~2. If the State Prosecutor decides not to prosecute the offence, he or she shall inform the Competent Authority in writing of the decision, which shall then proceed in accordance with Article 9, paragraph 5 of this Law.~~

~~3. Referral of the case to the State Prosecutor shall interrupt the statute of limitation and suspend the disciplinary proceedings.~~

Article 11 Criminal offense

1. In cases where the facts regarding the alleged disciplinary violation raise suspicion that the judge or prosecutor has committed a criminal offense, the Competent Authority shall, ex officio, refer the case to the State Prosecutor and notify the Council.

2. The referral of the case to the State Prosecutor shall terminate the statute of limitations and suspend the disciplinary procedure.

3. If the referral of the case to the State Prosecutor results in no criminal prosecution, a criminal conviction, or acquittal, the State Prosecutor shall notify the relevant Council and the Competent Authority in writing about the outcome of the criminal proceedings. In this case, the Competent Authority shall act in accordance with Article 9 of the Law if the case contains elements of a disciplinary violation.

~~4. If the referral of the case to the State Prosecutor results in a criminal conviction or acquittal, the State Prosecutor shall inform the Competent Authority in writing on the outcome of the criminal proceedings, and the Competent Authority shall proceed in accordance with Article 9 of this Law if the disciplinary case or the criminal case contains elements of a disciplinary offense.~~

(Article 9 of Draft Law on Amending and Supplementing Law No. 06/L-057 on the Disciplinary Liability of Judges and Prosecutors).

Article 12 Investigation procedure

~~1. The Council shall initiate disciplinary procedures based on a request submitted pursuant to Article 9, paragraph 1 of this Law.~~

~~2. A Competent Authority shall request the Council to initiate disciplinary investigations based on a complaint submitted by a natural or legal persons which is not dismissed~~

according to Article 9, paragraph 6 of this Law, or ex-officio when it has reasonable grounds to believe that a judge or a prosecutor has committed a disciplinary offence.

3. The Ombudsperson may request the Council to initiate disciplinary investigations against a Court President or the Chief Prosecutor if they have reasons to believe that they have committed a disciplinary offense pursuant to Article 9, paragraph 7 of this Law. The Ombudsperson may also request the Council to initiate disciplinary investigations against a judge or prosecutor if they consider that a Competent Authority has decided to dismiss a complaint against such judge or prosecutor in contradiction with Article 9, paragraph 5, in which case they shall provide a reasoning why the complaint should not have been dismissed.

4. The request to initiate disciplinary investigations shall be submitted in writing to the Council and to the judge or prosecutor who is the subject of investigation. The request shall state the identity of the judge or prosecutor who shall be investigated, a concise description of the factual and legal aspects which give rise to the allegation for a disciplinary offense and a proposal for a disciplinary sanction to be imposed by the Council. The Council shall establish and maintain an electronic database, which will register all complaints and requests for initiating disciplinary investigations and information submitted by competent authority. Each case will be registered within the same day that the complaint or request was received by the Council.

5. Within fifteen (15) working days from the receipt of the request to initiate disciplinary investigations, the Council shall establish an investigation panel to conduct the investigation. In cases foreseen in paragraph 3 of this Article, the Council may dismiss the request without forming the investigating panel, if it is considered with no value prima facie or not of a serious importance it is not substantial and it does not have any kind of relation with the disciplinary offence or falls under the status of limitations. The investigation panel concerning a judge, respectively president of the court, shall be composed of three (3) judges of a different court. The investigation panel concerning a prosecutor, respectively chief prosecutor for prosecutors, shall be composed of three (3) prosecutors of a different prosecutorial body. The Council shall determine the chairperson of the investigation panel from among the members of the investigation panel. The procedure for the selection and assignment of judges and prosecutors to serve on the investigation panel shall be determined by the Councils. The Council shall provide administrative and professional assistance to the investigation panel.

6. The investigation panel shall establish the facts and collect evidence related to the alleged disciplinary offence. The judge or prosecutor under investigation and the authority which has requested the initiation of investigation procedures may suggest witnesses, submit evidence, as well as request the submission of documents and the evidence held by other persons or institutions.

7. The investigation panel shall give the judge or prosecutor an effective opportunity to be heard in respect of the complaint and to be represented by defense counsel. The judge or prosecutor under investigation shall have access to all evidence collected by the investigation panel.

8. The investigation panel shall complete the investigation within three (3) months from the day it was established by the Council. In exceptional circumstances, the Council may extend the investigation for an additional period of up to two (2) months. Upon completion of the investigation, the investigation panel shall submit to the Council, the judge or prosecutor under investigation and the Competent Authority which has requested the initiation of disciplinary investigations, a written report on all collected facts and evidence.

~~Upon the submission of the report, the investigation panel shall cease its function at the moment when the case becomes final.~~

~~9. During the investigation procedure, the Council may ex officio or upon request of the Competent Authority, which has requested the initiation of investigations, suspend the judge or prosecutor who is under investigation if this is necessary considering the seriousness of the alleged disciplinary offences and to ensure the integrity and effectiveness of the investigation.~~

~~10. During the period of suspension of the judge/prosecutor from the previous paragraph, the same shall receive fifty percent (50%) of the monthly salary.~~

~~11. The provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code shall apply mutatis mutandis to collection of evidence and the rights of persons under investigation.~~

Article 12 Investigation procedure

1. The Judicial Council appoints nine (9) judges to serve on investigation panels for five (5) year terms, without the possibility of re-election.

2. For disciplinary cases, the Judicial Council establishes an investigation panel composed of three (3) judge members to conduct the investigations and appoints the chair of the panel.

3. The Prosecutorial Council appoints nine (9) prosecutors to serve on investigation panels for five (5) year terms, without the possibility of re-election.

4. For disciplinary cases, the Prosecutorial Council establishes an Investigation Panel composed of three (3) member prosecutors to conduct the investigations and appoints the chair of the panel.

5. The procedure for selecting and appointing judges and prosecutors to serve in the Investigation Panel shall be determined by the respective Councils. The Council shall ensure that the members of the Investigation Panel will receive a proportional reduction in their caseload as judges or prosecutors, and shall provide administrative and professional assistance to the Investigation Panel.

6. The Competent Authority shall request the initiation of disciplinary investigations in the following cases:

6.1. based on the complaint submitted by a natural or legal person under Article 9 of the Law, and

6.2. ex officio when there is information and reasonable cause to believe that a judge or prosecutor has committed a disciplinary violation.

7. In cases where the Council is the Competent Authority under Article 7, paragraphs 1.3 or 1.6 of the Law, it shall, after taking the necessary actions, establish the Investigation Panel for the initiation of disciplinary investigations.

8. The request for the initiation of disciplinary investigations under paragraph 6 of this Article is submitted in writing to the Council and the same must also be notified to the judge or prosecutor who is the subject of the investigation. The request must contain the identity of the judge or prosecutor being investigated and an accurate description of the factual and legal aspects on which suspicion of disciplinary violation is based.

9. The Council shall establish and maintain an electronic database where all complaints and requests for the initiation of disciplinary investigations and data submitted by the competent authority are recorded. Each case is registered on the day the appeal or request is received by the Council.

10. The investigation panel shall establish the facts and collect evidence related to the alleged disciplinary offence. The judge or prosecutor under investigation and the Authority which has requested the initiation of investigation procedures may suggest witnesses, submit evidence, as well as request the submission of documents and the evidence held by other persons or institutions.

11. The investigation panel shall give the judge or prosecutor an effective opportunity to be heard in respect of the complaint and to be represented by defence counsel. The judge or prosecutor under investigation shall have access to all evidence collected by the investigation panel.

12. The investigation panel shall complete the investigation within three (3) months from the date the request for the initiation of disciplinary investigations is received. In exceptional circumstances, the Council may extend the investigation for an additional period of up to two (2) months upon a request by the Panel. Upon completion of the investigation, the investigation panel shall submit to the Council, the judge or prosecutor under investigation and the Competent Authority which has requested the initiation of disciplinary investigations, a written report on all collected facts and evidence.

13. The provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code shall apply mutatis mutandis to the collection of evidence and the rights of persons under investigation.
